This yearbook has come out of many long hours of hard work and could not have been possible without the help of the staff, each contributing their time and energy. Thanks to those who loaned materials for the cover picture. We would especially like to thank our Assistant Editor, Max Cheng and our Copy Editor, Kari Daly and the 7th hour journalism class, plus our Photographers Paul Rosenthal and Bob Olsen. Most of all Mrs. Hendershott, who sometimes doubted, but never stopped believing we could pull this off.

Highlights

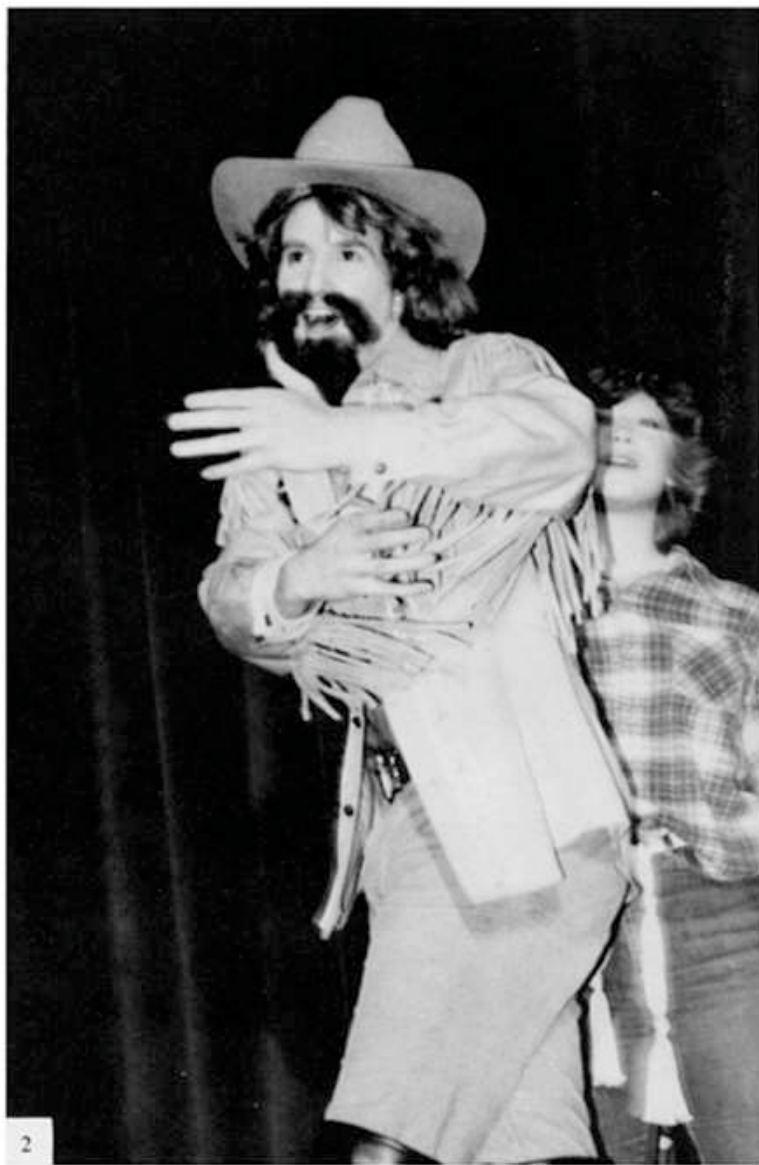

There's No Business . . .

The Spring Musical for 1982 was once again an excitement packed show. Filled with cowboys and Indians, "Annie Get Your Gun," told the story of Annie Oakley's rise to stardom and her adventures with Buffalo Bill and Frank Butler.

Leading roles were played by Chris Jett and Cathy Beyer double-cast as Annie; Kevin Conner and Richard Bills who shared the role of Frank Butler; and Sallie Allen and Kathy Moran as Dolly Tate.

Other major roles were John Godfrey as Buffalo Bill, Steve Corbett as Sitting Bull, and Tyler LeCrone as Charlie Davenport.

Cast members also included Jeff Bourn, Dottie McDevitt, Melissa Bull, Anne Vodicka, Andy Tabisz, Teri Walton, Karla Nalley, and Phil DeChiara.

1. Minnie, Jessie, and Nellie (Dottie McDevitt, Anne Vodicka, and Melissa Bull) cheer Annie on. 2. Buffalo Bill (John Godfrey) tries to lure Annie (Chris Jett) into joining his show. 3. Annie Oakley shows off her fancy shootin'. 4. Cathy Beyer as Annie sings of her troubles in catching a man. 5. Dolly Tate (Kathy Moran) tells the town about the show. 6. Dolly Tate (Sallie Allen) tells Charlie Davenport (Tyler LeCrone) that she is leaving the show. 7. Sitting Bull (Steve Corbett) makes plans with Buffalo Bill to save the Show. 8. Mrs. Potter-Porter and Frank Butler (Teri Walton and Richard Bills) make a grand entrance at the Ball. 9. Richard Bills, Sallie Allen, and Jeff Bourn as Frank, Dolly, and Pawnee Bill. 10. Annie searches for Frank at the Ball.

"Promises" Set Mood

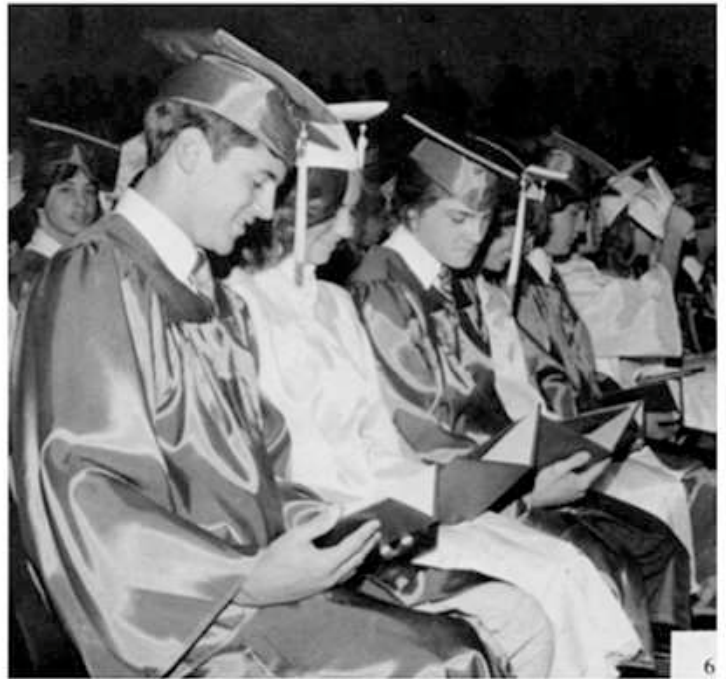

The theme "Promises" set the mood for the 1982 junior and senior prom, which was held on Saturday, May 14 at the Glen Ellyn Holiday Inn. Seventy-six couples attended that evening. The dinner consisted of fruit cup, tossed green salad, Prime Rib of Beef, Au Jus, baked potato, Corn O'Brien, and a sherbet desert. The band "Bushwack" provided the entertainment. Favors were long-stem roses and necklaces for the girls, and mugs for the boys. The faculty chaperones were Mr. Long, Mr. & Mrs. Neahaus, Miss Lund, and Mr. & Mrs. Whelpley. Guests of the Class of 1983 were Dr. & Mrs. Howard Smucker, Dr. & Mrs. Charles LeCrone, and Mr. & Mrs. Carlin Nalley.

1. Holly Hoffman and Ken Lobkovich find this prom a most memorable one. 2. Graduate Kathy Moran nervously enters under the trellis during the ceremony. 3. The couples converse as they finish their dinners. 4. The band "Bushwack" performs an up-beat song. 5. Choir members give their last performance under the direction of Mrs. Densford. 6. Graduate Doug Brodness proudly reads his diploma. 7. Tom Eckard, Natalie Wavra, John Parkhurst and his date all agree that they are having a good time. 8. Julie Provenzano and Eli Mayo enjoy a romantic evening. 9. The moment is finally upon them. 10. Valedictorian Richard Bills and Salutatorian Diane Pasquini prepare to address the senior class.

The Class of 1982 Broadens Horizons

One hundred seventy-four students graduated as members of the Class of 1982. Ceremonies were held June 4 in the gymnasium. The valedictorian and salutatorian were Richard Bills and Diane Pasquini, respectively. Seventeen graduates were members of the National Honor Society. Seven people received the Home and School Scholarship, and 25 graduates were Illinois State Scholars. Over 30 students received scholarships which totalled approximately $42,000. Mr. Neahaus presented the "I Care" award to Cindy Helms. Thirty-three percent of the students planned to attend a community college, and 40 percent planned to attend a four-year college. The band and senior chorus members provided the musical entertainment.

Musical Jamboree Success

This year's Variety show went well as it contained a wide variety of acts — from "little people" to football players dressed as women. There were many solos as well as choirs singing. The Drill Team performed, and Cheerleaders as punk rockers let us know about being cool. Two dancers really showed us grace while the Jazz Band showed us style. The MC for the Musical Jamboree was Heather Carlisle.

1. Chris Jett shows ballet in best form. 2. Jim Wood gives us lessons on Karate chops. 3. T. Stitt, J. Winz, D. Coolidge, C. Bonomo, K. Bonomo, and J. Liaromatis sing "Stand By Your Man". 4. K. Nalley, P. Munch, and S. Swift show their excitement of a performance. 5. Francia Valesquez gets down. 6. C. Willeford, Bill Strimel, J. Rio, E. Mayo, T. Kristenson, and T. Bellandi share themselves. 7. K. Nalley, M. McMahon, N. Wavra, J. Corrigan, and L. Cameron punk out. 8. S. Swift, L. Speno, and J. Malone dream happily about handsome guys. 9. B. Olsen plays solo for the Jazz Band. 10. T. Walton, D. McDevitt, K. Daly, and C. Jett sing "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy." 11. D. McDevitt tells J. Wood about her love for him.

Space Out for Homecoming

A Space Odyssey was the Homecoming theme for 1982. Sponsored by the Student Congress, Homecoming week included events such as Powder Puff Football, Class Color Day, Hall Decoration, Fun Day, and Blue and White Day.

Queen Karla Nalley was served by court members Debbie Brodess, Shawn Donohue, Renee Howe, Sonja Valente, Jeannie Van Duzen, and Francia Velasquez. King Chris Willeford was served by court members Dave Coolidge, Chris Hering, Kyle Hern, Mike Lobkovich, Dave Ratzer, and Matt Wrigley.

The seniors took first place in float competition and first place overall.

The dance "A Step into the Future" concluded the week with a night full of music provided by Nitelife.

1. The class of 1983 displays their spirit. 2. The senior float in all its glory. 3. D. Ratzler and F. Velasquez enjoy the parade route. 4. J. Van Duzen and M. Wrigley show excitement for the parade. 5. M. Lobkovich and S. Valente wait patiently for the end. 6. M. Ferrindino and K. Rothrock boogie down to the beat. 7. Senior girls psych themselves for the powderpuff game. 8. H. Scheidelman and M. Lambros continue work on their float. 9. S. Laue, R. Howe, S. Siciliano, and A. Schlect relax for a slow dance. 10. C. Hering, S. Donohue, D. Brodess, and D. Coolidge clown around some while riding. 11. K. Nalley and C. Willeford share the King and Queen dance. 12. All enjoy stepping into the future.

Ruling class Rules

"The Ruling Class", a play by Peter Barnes, was the production for the 1982 Fall Dinner Theatre. An English comedy that revolved around the lives of an English aristocratic family.

The play, directed by Mrs. Fiore, was put on Nov. 12 and 13. Leading performers were John Godfrey, Jill Godfrey, Lisa Speno, Jenny Malone, Karla Nalley, Lester Lewis, Matt Wrigley and Jim Wood.

Mrs. Godfrey and her crew handled the technical end of things. Rob Bryan was lighting director, Phil DeChiara served as stage manager and Dottie McDevitt assisted Mrs. Fiore as the student director.

1. Claire (Karla Nalley) has tea with Mrs. Piggot-Jones (Lani Stephans) and Mrs. Treadwell (Janet Parkhurst). 2. Jack (John Godfrey) returns home. 3. Hugo Murillo as Bishop Hampton. 4. A toast is made at the wedding of Jack and Grace. 5. Karla Nalley portrays Lady Claire Gurney. 6. Lisa Speno as Dinsdale, tries to decide what is going on. 7. The Earl (Jim Wood) hangs himself. 8. Tucker (Lester Lewis) sings at the wedding. 9. Matt Wrigley as Sir Charles Gurney. 10. Jack and Grace are married by the Bishop. 11. Dr. Herder and Claire (Chris Crowell and Jenny Malone) discuss Jack's case.

TIME

Students Come and Go

The Lisle AFS chapter participated in three international exchanges this year. From Honduras, Francia Valesquez, stayed with her host sister Janet Parkhurst and family for a year.

Another exchange student was Heather Carlisle. Heather spent the better part of a year in Australia where she stayed with the Smith Family.

Over the summer, Jenny Anderson went on a short term exchange to Japan.

Matthew Wrigley, a Rotary exchange student from Australia, was made an honorary AFS member. While here, he enjoyed participating in inter-cultural festivities and returned to his home planet in January '83.

1. The AFS bus, with Heather aboard, gets ready for the parade. 2. Heather and a friend hold the Australian flag. 3. Francia is surprised at the camera. 4. Heather with her host family. 5. Heather meets the natives. 6. Heather and Australian chaps. 7. Francia dances in the Variety show. 8. Jenny and her friends from Japan. 9. The local people welcome Jenny. 10. Matt poses for the camera. 11. Matt demonstrates one of his many talents.

AFS Experiences

Sponsored by Mrs. Gayle Swanson, the American Field Service Club promoted intercultural and international programs. Under President Kari Daly, AFS co-sponsored the Dinner/Theatre, sold donuts, and held two pizza sales to make money to aid AFS programs.

AFS sent Heather Carlisle to Australia, Cindy Helms to the United Kingdom, and Jenny Anderson to Japan. AFS also welcomed Francia Velasquez, an exchange student from Honduras.

Helping President Kari Daly, were Carol McGee as secretary; Treasurer Tara Howell; Jenny Anderson as Activities Chairperson; and Debbie Brodess who acted as Vice President.

Julie Rossi, Tina Lui, Diane Price and Chris Jett performed the duties of class group leaders for grades 9-12, respectively.

AFS was also aided by Lisle's Adult Chapter, who chaperoned, held fundraisers, and acted as the preliminary screening group for Lisle applicants. They helped send AFS students to Arkansas on the short-term exchange.

MLC is Culture

A club devoted to the study of culture, the Modern Language Club participated in many international activities. They traveled to Chicago's Folk Fest and visited several ethnic restaurants. Fund raisers included pizza sales and the annual Monte Carlo Night in January.

Sponsored by foreign language teachers Mrs. Eggerton and Mrs. Cepek, MLC was presided over by President Jeanine Gruzka and Vice President Kari Daly. Other officers included Joyce Hickey as Projects Chairperson, Secretary Karin Anderson, and as Representative, Chris Jett.

FBLA Competes; Pep Club Informs

FBLA resumed their annual donkey basketball game after a two year break. It was one of the club's biggest fund-raising events, along with selling donuts twice a week. Using the money, FBLA travelled to Springfield for the annual state competition, held in March. Kerry Nowicki held the office of president, with Christy Rothrock as vice president. Keeping count of the funds was the job of Secretary Joyce Hickey.

Pep Club kept busy by informing the student body about various sports events. The posters they made were a good form of publicity.

Outdoorsmen Travel; Lettermen's Club Raise Funds

1

Members of the Outdoorsmen Club took a nature trip to Eagle Valley, Wisconsin. The club was presided over by President Joe Kadow, and sponsor, Mr. Larry Bates.

The Lettermen's Club raised money most of the year. The club consisted mostly of seniors, among them, President Dave Coolidge. The Lettermen's Club had no permanent sponsor — whoever was head coach of the season became the sponsor.

Skiers Face Disappointment SSIC Blasts Off

President Scott Bedore and Vice President Tim Bellandi led the Ski Club into an exciting year but due to the warm weather and lack of snow, skiers didn't have their typical year on the slopes. Ski Club, sponsored by Bev Fiore, participated in the annual racing comp. at Villa Olivia in January, qualifying for finals in February, but due to weather conditions there was no competition. Unfortunately it was not an exciting year for skiers.

This year, an unofficial club was created called the Shuttle Student Involvement Club (SSIC). It grew around nine students who were interested in submitting an experiment into the National Shuttle Involvement Project sponsored by NASA and NSTA. For two consecutive years, Merry Jirka has been chosen as a National Semifinalist and attended a symposium held at the NASA in Huntsville, Alabama.

Student Congress Achieves Success

Leading the way to a successful year were President Shawn Donohue, Vice-President Jen Sinnick, Secretary Mariam Foster and Treasurer Sarah Bartels, accompanied by student congress members and sponsor, Mr. Kevin Pobst.

Kicking the year off right, student congress organized a fabulous homecoming week.

Much effort was put into community projects. Aid was given to restoring the Lisle Depot Museum. The "Thanksgiving Basket" competition provided needy community residents with canned foods for the holidays.

Christmas spirit week, including a Christmas dance, was a successful way to start out the holiday season.

Student congress also held their annual student congress workshop to inform and educate students on preferred topics.

Thespians Promote

The International Thespian Society is a honor society which gives recognition to those students that have meritoriously participated in theatre arts. Each spring students that have earned enough points are initiated into the club. This year there were 9 student and 3 faculty members.

Under the direction of club sponsor Mrs. Beverly Fiore, and President John Godfrey, the club co-sponsored the annual Dinner/Theatre, Monte Carlo Night. New to the club this year was a one act play taken around to the grade schools.

This year Thespians tried to better promote their functions and get more people involved, both on stage and behind the scenes.

1. Thespian members John Godfrey and Mrs. Fiore prepare to go on as Joyce Hickey looks on. 2. Mrs. Godfrey enjoys her initiation. 3. Todd Kristensen and Chris Jett listen intently to the meaning of being a Thespian. 4. Thespian Troupe 660, Front row: Todd Kristensen, Chris Jett, Dottie McDevitt, Karla Nalley, John Godfrey. New Clubs Form

The main purpose of the new Health Careers Club, led by Mrs. Rasso, was to make members more aware of various health occupations. The club covered the many aspects of medical services through guest speakers and assorted activities.

The Key Club, sponsored by Mr. Logeman, was formed as a public service organization. Members volunteered to perform various tasks around the school and to aid in local improvements and charitable fund raisers.

NHS Donates; Mathletes Compete

Math Club had a total of 36 members this year. Attending many math contests, the math team took 4th in the 1982 ICTM State Math Contest. Club officers were Merry Jirka — president, Rob Bryan — vice president, Lani Stephens — secretary treasurer, and Julie Alessandri — club coordinator.

The National Honor Society helped out this year by ushering for Honors Night and Graduation. Flowers were sold on Valentine's and St. Patrick's Day to raise money which was donated to a worthy charity at the conclusion of the school year.

MUN Attends Convention

Under the guidance of Mr. Pobst this year, the Model United Nations Club formed and attended the 1983 YMCA Model United Nations Convention held in Lake Geneva Wisconsin. Students in the club were sent to the convention representing the five countries of West Germany, Poland, Honduras, Mexico, and Ireland. While at the convention, the students were able to experience first hand what it is like to make and present resolutions to represent their chosen countries in a Model United Nations session.

PRIDE Grows

Under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Hendershott, the PRIDE expanded its coverage. Debbie MacPherson, Editor-in-Chief, delegated and assigned duties. She made the paper more attractive by the institution of pictures and varied headlines, and she always made sure that the paper was "put to bed" within the deadline. The copy editor, Maxwell Cheng, as well as the sports editor, Chris Bono-mo, worked with the large writing staff to give the paper more depth and a wider perspective to meet the needs of Lisle students. However, this all could not be done without the help of Mr. Bob Jones, the PRIDE'S printer.

A SPACE ODYSSEY 1982 HOMECOMING BLASTS OFF

By Merry Jirka and Debbie MacPherson

Homecoming week kicked-off Sunday with the annual PowderPuff football game. The Juniors beat the Freshman and tied the Sophomores 0-0.

Monday, students began working on floats and will be putting the finishing touches on tonight. Monday was also Sweats in Space Day. Tuesday the halls were filled with many creatures participating in Sci-Fi Day. After school the halls were donned with space-type decorations for hall decorating. Wednesday brought many strange hair-dos for Crazy Hair Day.

Thursday was designated FunDay and brought out class spirit as classes wore their colors and participated in MoonBuggy Races, DonkeyKong Basketball, Lost in Space, Tug of War the Breakthrough, and the Battle Cry.

The Creature Feature has been running all week and students have been adding pennies to support their own unidentified creature.

Tonight, the snake dance will begin outside the Medical Building at 7:30 and will end up at the High School with the crowning of the King and Queen. Court members are Dave Goolidge, Chris Hering, Kyle Hern, Mike Lobkovich, Dave Ratzler, and Chris Willeford. Debbie Brodness, Shawn Donohue, Renee Howe, Karla Malley, Sonja Valente, and Jeannie VanDuzen.

Tomorrow will begin with the Homecoming parade stepping off from Schiesher school at 10:00. At 12 and 2, the Lions will host Elmwood Park at Wilde Field for their Homecoming game. The day will finish with the dance, "A Step into the Future" in the commons at 8:00.

1. The PRIDE staff at work making a newspaper from chaos. 2. After 3 sleepless nights of working on their PRIDE stories, Carol McGee and Merry Jirka freak out just before deadline. 3. Track Takes Third

The 1982 season for the track team, coached by Pete Mastandrea, Jr. and assistant coaches Dennis Ghinazzi and Carlin Nalley, was a good one.

Led by co-captains Doug Brodess and Jim Katrenk the Lisle track team took 3rd in the IHSA meet. In the meet, Lisle took 2nd in the 400 meter relay, run by Dave Ratzler, Doug Brodess, John Miller, and Jon Lee. Taking 3rd in the 1600 meter run, was John Nalley. The team also took 4th in the 1600 meter relay, 5th in the 800 meter run, and 6th in the pole vault.

The M.V.P. was John Nalley.

Lady Runners Finish First In Conference

The spring of 1982 proved to be a successful one for the girls track team. They participated in a number of dual and invitational meets throughout the season.

For the second year in a row, our "Lady Lions" captured the Northeast Conference title, on the varsity level. Representing Lisle at the Girls State Track Meet held in Charleston, Illinois was an 800 meter medley relay team made up of senior Tami Nelson, junior Dinah Wagner, sophomore Barb Skurka and freshman Lisa Klein. Junior Betty Jeffery qualified in both the shot put and the discus. The 800m. medley relay placed third in the state. Most valuable runner was Tami Nelson. Last year's coaching staff consisted of Head Coach, Mr. Bob Jones and new assistant, Miss Karen Ulher.

Frosh-Soph Baseball Shows Potential

Although this year's frosh-soph baseball team finished the season with a record of 5-15, they showed potential for the future. Leading the team with the top hitting percentage was Bill Buchelt. The honorary captains were Mike Spokas and Jeff Garrison. The Lions were coached by Mr. Mike Kuzniewski, a student teacher in the P.E. department. A helping hand was lent by batgirls Jan Wurst, Cassie Burke, and Charmin McCallum.

Lion Champs Again

The Varsity Lions completed another undefeated conference season as they took the title for the seventh time in eight years of competition. The team won the St. Francis tournament in route as they dominated for the second straight year, with Colette Housh capturing the most valuable player trophy. Karen Ulher took over the head coaching reins with a great deal of success, moving up from the Frosh-Soph position she held last year, and using her vast background and collegiate experience to hold this squad into a well-honored unit. The team made a good showing in the Latin School Tournament in the city. All-Conference selections were Colette Housh, Jayne Morten, and Jeannie VanDuzen.

Frosh-Soph ended their season with a conference record of 5-3. The team was coached by Ardis Huffman, who was pleased with the improvements this past season.

Golfers Break Record

The Lisle golf team record for this year was 13 wins and two losses. This broke the school record of ten wins and four losses. The golfers were victorious in conference and went on to regionals in which they took third place. Next came sectionals in which the Lisle golfers placed fourth. One of the players, Glenn Warren, went on to state. The 1982-83 golfers set the best team low record of Lisle High at 154 points.

Teams take Second In Conference

The 1982 Girls Tennis Team was again coached by Mr. Rick Beato and this year's assistant Mike Ramsey. Although the girls had a record of 1-12, at the conference meet the girls played their best by achieving second overall. Placing at conference were Lisa Speno second at first singles and second at second singles was Sue Swift. At first doubles achieving first was Linda Cameron and Karla Nalley and first in second doubles were Terri Barker and Renee Howe.

The Boys Tennis Team took sixteen wins and two losses in their 1982 season, in which they nominated Steve Corbett M.V.P. and Dave Coolidge and Brad Long Co-captains. The team took second in the N.E.C. tournament and tied in districts.

F-S Wrestlers Meet Challenge

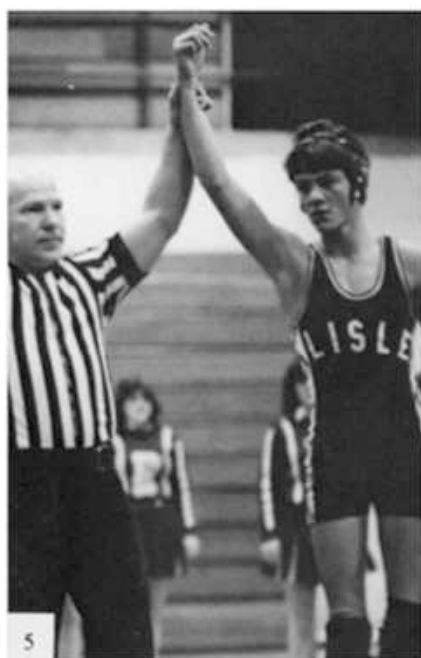

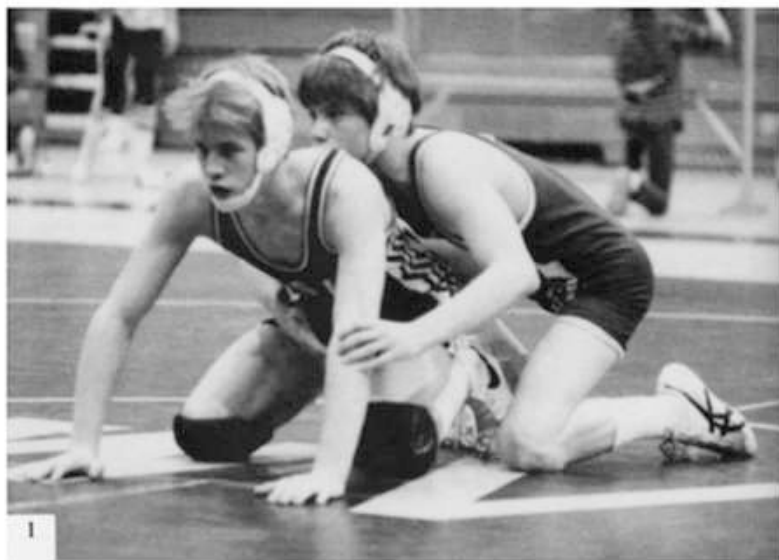

The freshman-sophomore wrestling team can pride itself with a successful year. The team, led by sophomore Heinz Heinisch (25-0), gained a 9-8 record, placing them third in conference. Outstanding performances were also shown by Raffi Khelgatian, Kirk Walker, Pat Murphy, Tim Hansen, Bob Morgan, Bob Dannick, and Mark Anderson. "The highlight of the year was when we finished fourth out of eight schools at the Downers Grove South Tournament," stated Mr. Pobst.

Swim Team Takes A Dive

Because Lisle does not have a swimming pool, swimmers were not able to engage in regulation practice. As a result, although Lisle swimmers participate in Sectional meets, they were not allowed to officially score.

To swim in the Sectional meet the swimmers were required to have a coach-representative to represent them. For the past two years Dr. John Mulcare has represented the girls and boys swim teams.

This years' five-girl swim team consisted of senior Joan Severyns, Sophomore Huda Schiedelman, and freshmen Kathy Callais, Kristina Groth, and Karyn Liby.

The 1983 Boys Swim Team consisted of Chuck Laue.

B-Ball Requires Dedication

Varsity Coach Karen Uhler, back for her second year, and Coach Mary Kay Brooks, returning to take over the Frosh-Soph team, worked to bring a successful season to the Girls Basketball program. The girls were required to have enthusiasm, dedication, willingness and talent, that when put together, made for the success they experienced.

The Varsity squad was comprised of three seniors, four juniors, one sophomore and two freshmen. Junior Jen Sinnick was captain. The Frosh-Soph squad consisted of six sophomores and eleven freshmen. Sophomore Heidi Scharnagle and freshman Dawn Recka were co-captains.

F-S Basketball Gets Tough

This past year's freshman basketball team had a very promising year. They started out with a 2-6 record but after Christmas they turned it around, winning six and losing only one. As it was his first year at Lisle, Coach D'Amico said that the team was an excellent group of athletes that proved how hard work could help them accomplish their goals and become successful.

The sophomore squad's high scorers were André Wright and Kevin Ingram. Pulling most of the rebounds was Jeff Gorden. Coach Ron Logeman commented that the team had made great improvements from last year.

LeCrone Earns Degree

Principal Charles LeCrone received a doctors degree in education and school administration in September from the University of Illinois.

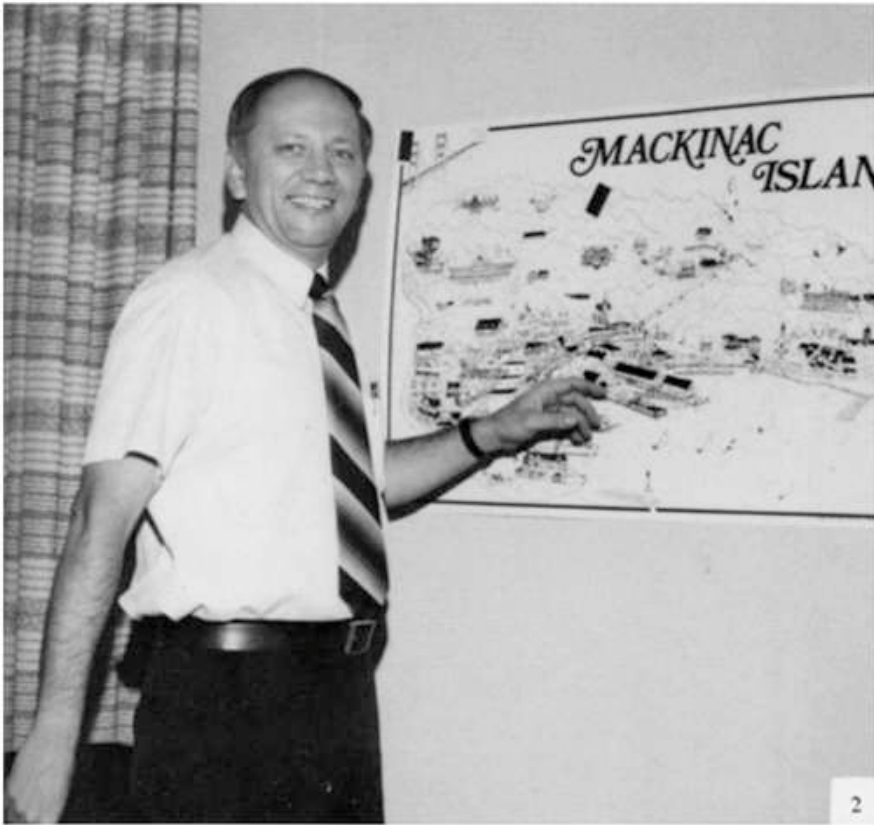

During the summer, Mr. John DiBuono, Assistant Superintendent, left the district to become superintendent in Carol Stream. Mr. John DiBuono had been with the district for 12 years.

Mrs. Gayle Digate had taken charge of (SASED), the special education program for the district.

The school board discussed various issues, concentrating on a review of the student code of conduct.

Mr. Russ Perry, Lisle board member, resigned in October, because he moved from the district.

Staff Dedicated

It took many hours of hard work to keep the school well organized. A dedicated staff of sixteen people were seen throughout the school day — all providing the assistance that faculty and students were happy to receive.

Two new members were added to the staff this year. Joan Stuedell aided in the science department and Gail Kearby joined the crew in the cafeteria.

The benefits provided to the school by the outstanding group were appreciated by one and all.

1. Mrs. Beatty takes a short break. 2. Mr. Leuandowski fixes a door. 3. Mrs. Ratzer is on the phone. 4. Mrs. McIntosh works in the attendance office. 5. Mr. Christensen cleans up after lunch. 6. Mrs. Curtin is doing some paper work. 7. Mrs. Baluk helps a student. 8. Mrs. Raso is the school nurse. 9. Mrs. Kearby serves fries.

Counselors Aid in Decisions for Future

Being a guidance counselor is a multi-faceted job. It ranges from helping a bewildered freshman organize his schedule, to assisting a worried senior on college choices.

This year our counselors, Mr. David Anderson, and Miss Betty Loos, along with Mr. Carl Doolen, Director of Guidance, discussed plans for the future with students as well as their parents.

The Career Resource Center was again open this year, providing information on colleges, careers, and much more. An extensive card catalog library also helped students choose from a variety of colleges, and to narrow down the field by checking with other resources available.

Mrs. Kremer, Guidance office secretary for the past sixteen years, played a substantial part in the guidance system, by scheduling appointments, making calls, sending out applications, and otherwise helping the counselors do their job.

Library Changes in Staff, Policy

This year many changes were made in the library. We welcomed Mrs. Ardis Huffman as our new librarian, joining Mrs. Gay Berry on the staff. Also, Miss Barbara Lund, better known as our home economics instructor, was added to the staff as an assistant.

As another addition to the growing library staff, four student library aides were added. Their duties entailed such things as checking books in and out, running errands, transferring audio-visual equipment, and processing new books. This not only aided the librarians in reducing work load, but also gave them more time to help the students in their research endeavors.

Another change was the elimination of library fines and the rearrangement of the interior, making it easier for the librarians, as well as the students.

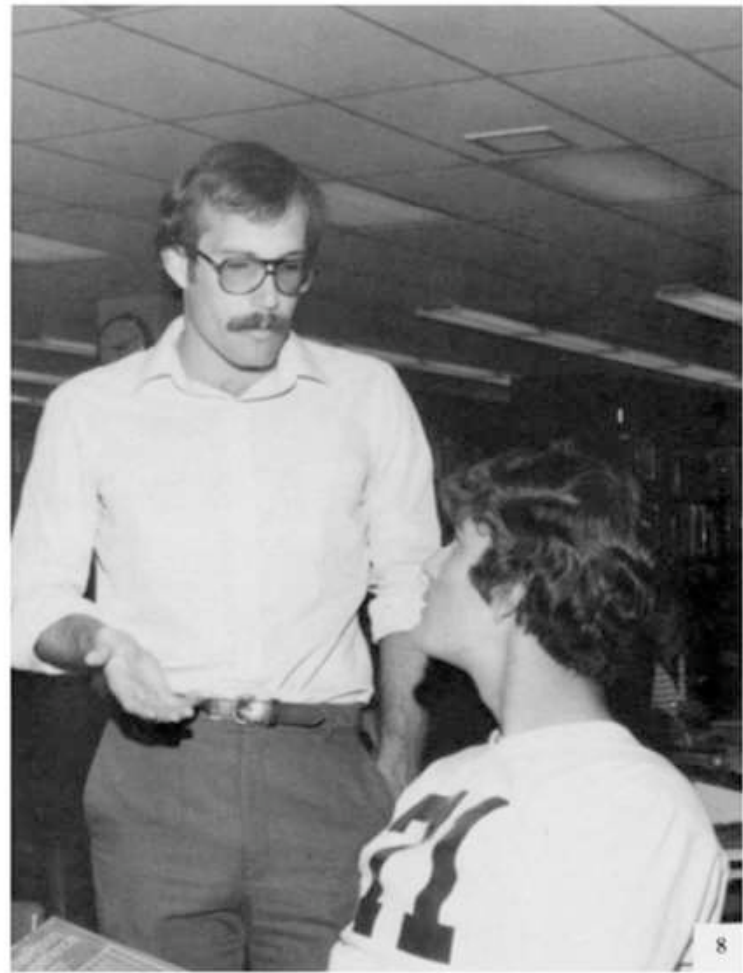

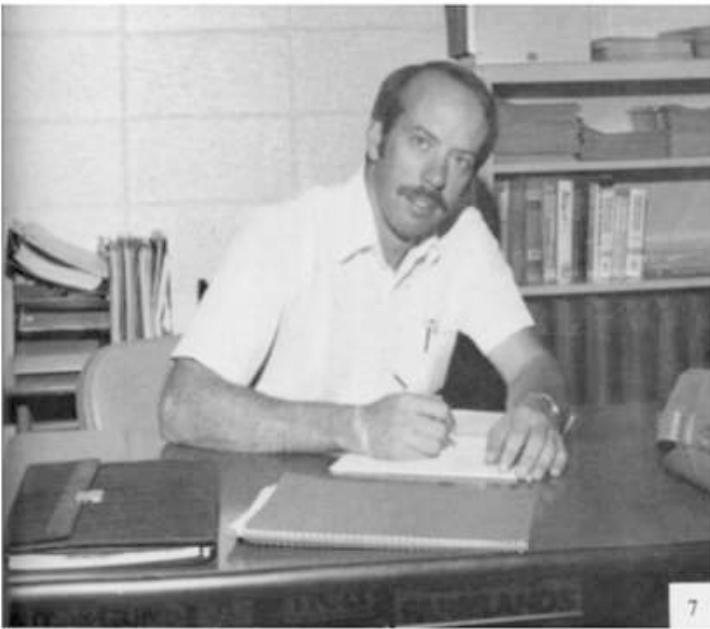

1. Karen Magiera seems amused by her choice of reading material, while some sophomore girls study diligently in the background. 2. Mr. Anderson contemplates senior test scores. 3. The Xerox copy room is like a second home to Mrs. Kremer, guidance office secretary. 4. Mrs. Berry, checking the card catalog for a book, says to a student, "Sorry, we don't have the book, "101 Uses For A Dead Cat," to use for your English thesis." 5. Mrs. Huffman happily looks over the shelf list, checking for the arrival of some new books. 6. Mr. Anderson gives Annamarie Vodicka some helpful hints on filling out college applications, will it be Harvard, Yale, or C.O.D.? 7. Cheerfully, Miss Loos welcomes a student who needs guidance. 8. Library Aide, David Lundin, checking for overdue books, seems upset by the intrusion of the photographer.

Logeman Heads English

Enrollment in the English department was high, and a variety of courses was offered. The department stressed the importance of the use of our language and would have liked to see students taking more elective English courses. Succeeding Mrs. Phinney as chairman of the English department this year was Mr. Ron Logeman. When asked if he enjoys the job as chairman, Mr. Logeman indicated that his increased involvement was very rewarding for him. This year, Mrs. Sullivan taught English fulltime.

1. Mrs. Fiore smiles over her work. 2. Barbara McGuffey works hard in Journalism. 3. Mrs. Hendershott likes her new room. 4. Paul Munch concentrates on getting the job done. 5. Mr. Beato takes a break. 6. Mrs. Sullivan gives the camera a smile. 7. Mr. Beato has pride in his writing. 8. Mr. Logeman demands work of Mike Presecky. 9. Mr. Munneke shows off his Miss Piggy. 10. Mr. Logeman gives an example of good studying.

Como se llama? Parlez-vous francais?

Students involved with foreign languages learned how to say various things such as "What is your name?" or "Do you speak French?" during their first year. Students enrolled in their second, third, or fourth year extended their vocabulary and sharpened their speaking skills with the use of cassettes. Classroom methods of teaching were varied. Culture days, dialogues, and films made classes more interesting not only for the students, but for the teachers as well.

Mrs. Nancy Egerton taught all the Spanish students. She also sponsored Modern Language Club, along with Mrs. Ann Cepek. MLC worked on fundraisers such as Monte Carlo Night, and took several trips throughout the year. Mrs. Cepek taught all the French classes and also one Spanish I class.

Students Practice Skills

The four areas of Home Economics classes included Food Prep II, Single Survival, Clothing II, and a new class, Orientation to Home Economics. The classes were taught by Miss Lund, who also sponsored the drill team.

Mr. King taught Photography, Woods II, Drafting II, and Orientation to Industrial Arts in the morning, and then taught at the junior high in the afternoon.

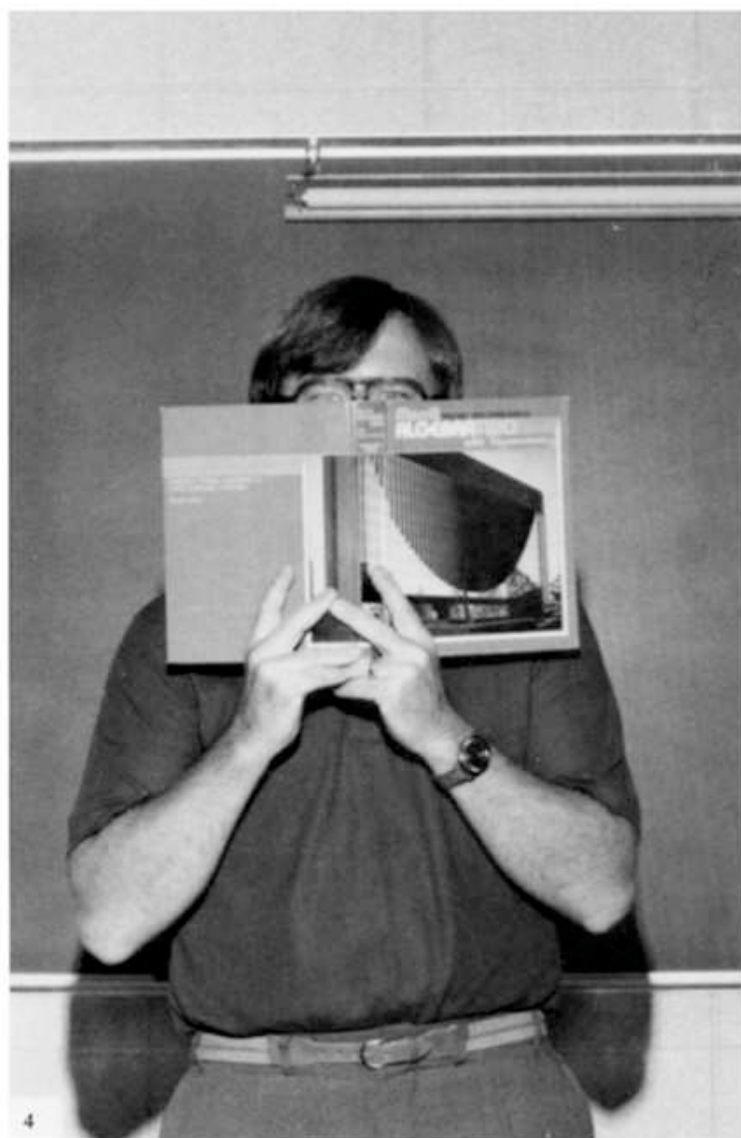

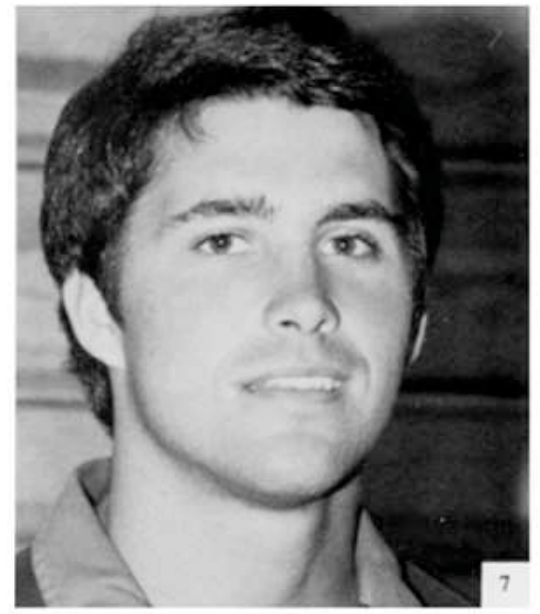

1. Mrs. Egerton takes attendance. 2. Mr. King helps a student. 3. Mrs. Cepek enjoys her classes. 4. Spanish students work on their assignments. 5. Becky Rosales concentrates on her sewing. 6. Miss Lund lectures to her class 7. Spanish class is fun for these sophomores! 8. Mrs. Egerton answers one of Scott Corrigan's questions. 9. Mr. King takes two. 10. This student threads a sewing machine.

New Additions For Math Department

Many new changes were made to the Math Department this past year. Among them a new teacher, Mr. Kevin Bobbit; a newcomer, Computers II; and a new schedule of standardization in all math classes were added.

Mr. Randy Pippen was the Math department chairman for grades 6-12, taught Geometry, Algebra II, Math Analysis, and Calculus. Mr. Don Whelpley sponsored the Junior Class and taught Algebra II, Computers I, and the new course Computers II. Mrs. Sharon Smith was the math Club Sponsor along with having taught classes of Basic Algebra, Algebra I, and Geometry. She also helped with the musical and Chamber Choir.

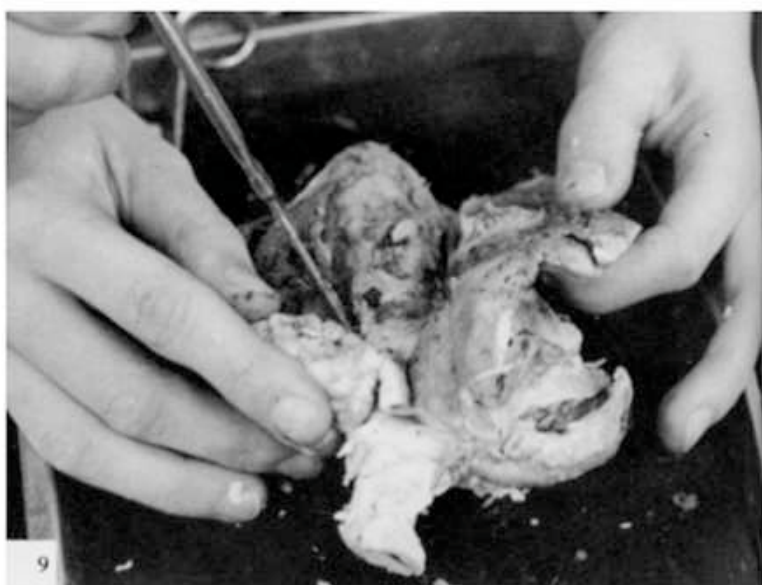

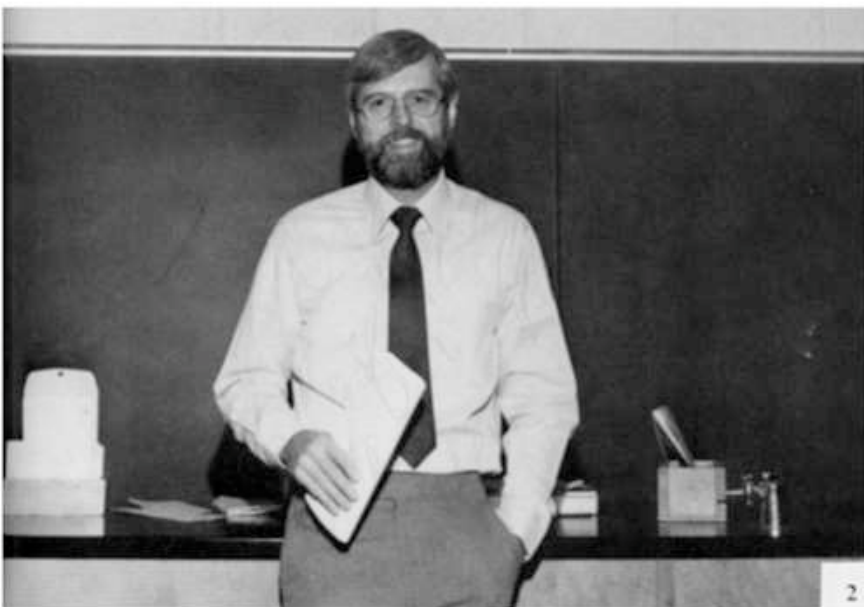

1. Mr. Bobbit smiles as another dumb joke is told. 2. Mr. Pippen states that the team is tough. 3. Mr. Whelpley works happily at his computer. 4. Mr. Pippen hides from the questions of the students. 5. Mr. Whelpley decides what to do for the next day. 6. Mrs. Smith takes time from figuring grades to smile. 7. Mr. Bobbit smugly assured of the year ahead.

Science Department Utilizes Computers

A new approach to experimentation was used this year by the Science Department. This was the utilization of computers to aid in experimentation. In using the computers, the students were able to simulate experiments that they didn't have the equipment for and to do genetic problems which involved the combination of many variables.

2

Dr. Mulcare is supervising Ken Schlecht and Christy Rothrock as they work on their experiment.

History Department Has New Dimensions

Contemporary Problems and American Ethnics expanded the History Department this year.

Mr. Kevin Pobst joined Lisle's faculty. The classes he taught included U.S. History, American Government, and Contemporary Problems. He advised the Student Congress and Model U.N. and also acted as assistant coach during the wrestling season. Also teaching Contemporary Problems was Mr. Barney Neahaus, whose other classes were U. S. History and American Ethnics. His warmth, cheerfulness, and dedication carries the school through it's pep rallies.

Besides teaching business classes, Mrs. Marilyn Cunat also taught an American Government class. Mr. Dennis Ghinazzi's classes included World History and U. S. History. During the year he was assistant Varsity coach for football and track, and he supervised the Nautilus program at Four Lakes.

1. Mr. Neahaus is always ready to offer a smile. 2. Mrs. Cunat is busy lecturing her students. 3. These students find history interesting. 4. Two students converse before class starts. 5. Mr. Ghinazzi's lectures keep students interested with exclamations of "You bet!" 6. Robyn Coultas, Melissa Bull, Dana Barnes and Glen Gurski find their class amusing. 7. A student imitates Groucho Marx during class. 8. Mrs. Cunat enjoys a break from teaching. 9. Mr. Pobst figures out students' grades.

Prepare for Future

The business department was headed by Mr. Jones. It contained classes intended to prepare students for jobs after graduation.

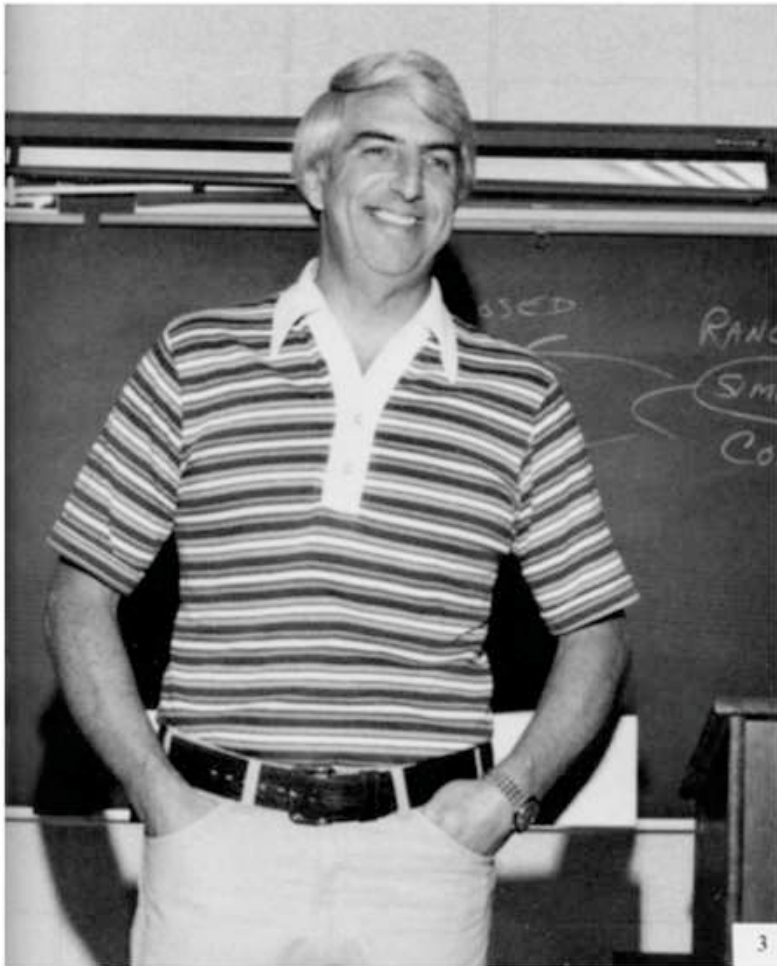

The classes offered were Accounting, Business Law, and Typing, taught by Mrs. Marilyn Cunat. Mrs. Gayle Swanson Taught Orientation to Business, Data Processing, and other typing courses. Mr. Robert Jones taught co-op.

Three Required of Sophs

The required courses for the sophomores were Drivers Education, Consumers Education, and Health.

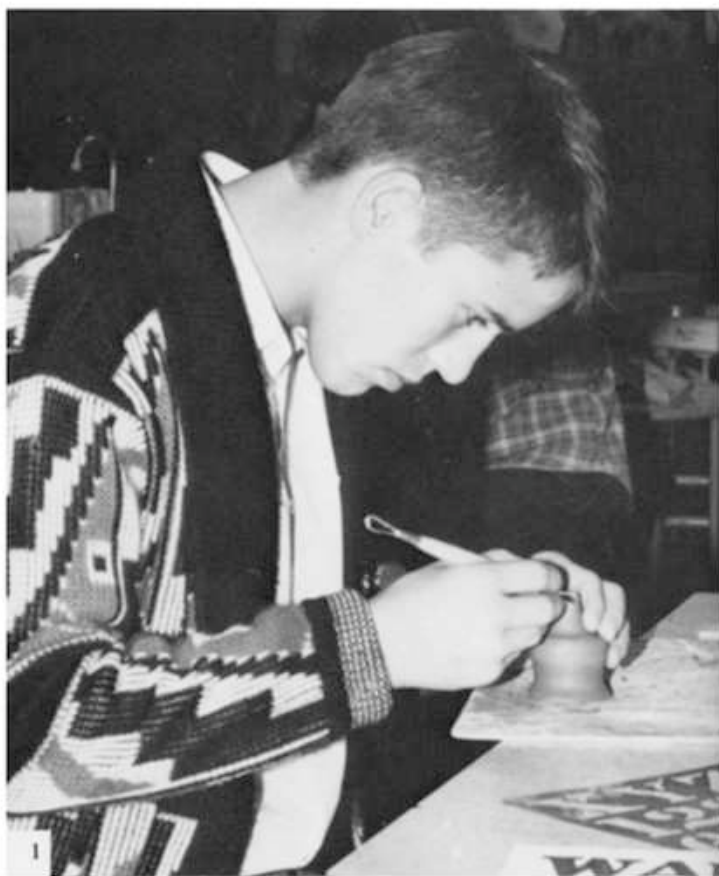

The classroom part of Drivers Ed. was taught by Mr. Gollan. Mr. Ciesielski taught the majority of the behind-the-wheel training. Mr. Gollan also taught Consumers Ed. Mr. Baum taught Health, a one semester class to the sophomores.

1. Mrs. Cunat grimaces at a student's bad joke. 2. Gritting his teeth, Mr. Jones makes a point. 3. Mr. Baum finds the subject of anemia amusing. 4. Mr. Ciesielski describes how close he came to losing his life while teaching a sophomore how to drive. 5. Getting down to business, Colette Housh listens to her Walkman. 6. Mrs. Swanson seems ready to head for home. 7. Mrs. Cunat's class accounts for the 1982 federal deficit. 8. Seemingly in a daze, Mr. Gollan corrects his 194th Drivers Ed. notebook.

Artistic Talents Develop

All the art classes of this year helped students prevail in developing their own talents. Among the classes available were Art I and II, drawing and painting, commercial art, art workshop, and Ceramics I and II. A new element added this year was the watching of videos to aid students in artistic creativity.

1. Eli Mayo works on a clay project. 2. Joe Rio concentrates on his work. 3. Barb McGuffey uses the potters wheel. 4. Mrs. Godfrey takes time from her work to smile. 5. Jim Winz adds the final touch. 6. Laura Jessen prepares to start her project. 7. An art student forms her project 8. Art in the making.

DAVEA Provides for Future

Employability is essential to everyone's personal plans, without exception. Created ideally for the purpose of employability, the DAVEA Center provided training for many students. Fifty-five students attended from Lisle.

For the ninth year, Lisle students have attended DAVEA. They have enrolled in many different programs to which Medical Lab Assistant and Data Entry Occupations have just been added.

All DAVEA programs were open to juniors and seniors. The students were provided with an education in the skills of their choice. Lisle was just one in a group of thirteen schools that offered its students the DAVEA opportunity.

1. Jackie Bambas gets first hand experience in Travel-Tour. 2. A Lisle student looks at the bright side of things. 3. Mike Holm displays concentration. 4. Clay Castunguay dresses for the occasion. 5. David Garner works on repairing a television in Electronics. 9. Steve Hanacek and Tim Keeton help each other in their Machine Tool course. 10. Will Stamer focuses his attention on his Welding project. 11. Smile while you work is obviously Paul DiPaolo's favorite saying.

Let's Get Physical

Helping students keep physically fit was the major objective in our physical education classes. Students took part in a variety of activities such as football, soccer and running in the fall months, and during the winter months students participated in floor hockey, badminton, aerobics and weight training. Spring activities, included archery, softball and tennis. The teaching staff included Mr. Gene Baum, Mr. Van Gollan, Mrs. Betty Poetker, and Miss Karen Ulher. An addition to the teaching staff was Mr. Paul Cesaretti.

Band Elects Officers

At the beginning of concert band season, the band elected officers. Charis Allgaier, a senior, was elected president, Bill Buchelt, a junior, vice-president, and Kim Brandt, a sophomore, secretary. Mr. Steven Green, the band director, appointed Rebecca Jirka and Kristen Powell librarians.

During the year, the marching band performed at four football games and in three parades. The concert band gave three concerts and competed in the IHSA Band Contest. At ten home basketball games, the pep band entertained spectators during half-time.

Individually, members of the band participated in solos or ensembles at the IHSA Band Concert. Also, twenty band students played in the NEC Band.

Flag Corps Flies

Adding color to this year's marching band was the new flag corps consisting of eight members. Co-captains Jackie Bambas and Robyn Coultas led the way for the 1982-83 corps.

The new uniform, boots, and jackets along with sharp precision, fast movements, and graceful stride boosted their pride. Performing at the home football games, marching in parades, and participating in a flag corps clinic made up the year for the corps.

Many hours of practice were spent under the direction of Robin Green. The flag corps was sponsored by the band director, Steve Green.

Routines were done to the selections of "Black Saddles", "Raiders", "Star Wars", and "On Wisconsin".

1. Flag Corps march in the Homecoming Parade. 2. Charmin McCallum and Annamarie Vodicka stand saluting the flag during the Star Spangled Banner. 3. Choir Performs

Although the Varsity Choir was small, they put in fine performances at the Variety Show, NEC Music Festival, Mad-rigal Dinner and Winter Concert. Many long hours of singing, memorization, and practice was spent under the direction of Mrs. Pat Densford.

The choir acted as servants and ushers for the annual Mad-rigal Dinner.

Chamber Choir Adds Class

This year, the Chamber Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Pat Densford, added dimensions to their performances by implementing the use of painted wooden blocks and new tuxedo-like outfits. The chorus performed often during the year at contests, festivals, and concerts, including the annual Madrigal Dinner. This year's choir consisted of 7 men and 17 women.

1. The Lords and Ladies of the manor give their dinner concert. 2. Choir practice, day in and day out. 3. K. Nalley, K. Raidna, J. Godfrey, D. McDevitt, S. Swift, and M. Freshmen Blast Off

The Class of 1986 showed true spirit and enthusiasm during the Homecoming events. The theme of their float was "Blast Off Tigers," which was illustrated by a rocket. Although as a class they came in fourth place, they worked as a team.

The Freshmen class, sponsored by Sharon Frias, is under the leadership of President Roger Lui, Vice-President Susan McMahon, and Representatives Denise O'Sullivan and Kris Anderson.

Sophomores Progress

This years Sophomore class worked hard to make a name for themselves after a disappointing Freshman year. Under the direction of class officers Jill Godfrey, Sharri Perkins, Kim Brandt, and John Bartels the Class tried to get more class participation in all activities. Using a theme from Star Wars, the class float placed in Homecoming competition. They were required to take Drivers Ed., Consumers Ed. and Health.

John Bartels represented Lisle in the State Cross Country Meet. Sophomores carried the Lisle tradition for spirit and pride.

Juniors Gain Privileges

"It's great to have finally become an upperclassmen!" A phrase often heard coming from a junior's mouth. They gave the word upperclassmen meaning with their increased independence and responsibility. They got the car more often to date, to commute back and forth, and to just hang around. Junior sportspeople competed as varsity at last. They ordered their class rings. They realized that their decisions would build their future.

The junior class representatives this year were: Jan Wurst, Barb Skurka, Diane Price and Ken Bonomo.

I believe as you take your leave of our halls and classrooms and your spirits take their place among and begin mingling with all the memorable spirits of classes past, you shall know the meaning of what I say to you — for you have climbed our mountain, stood atop its summit for what will be a few moments in your life, and now the wind has come and will blow your footprints away — and others will follow to enjoy their moments in the sun atop the mountain we know as LSHS.

But you must know it is the beauty that lies not in conquering, but in standing atop the summit, it is the act of doing whence the beauty lies, and the capturing of the moments, not the days that will bring reality to our dreams — for in conquering we become satisfied, and the moments turn to days, the sun no longer warm, but fails to end the chill, the summit now becomes a barren mirror of the life of the conqueror, who does no more, but for those like you, who have captured the moments, felt the warmth of the sun, and now have turned to descend the summit, looking back only to smile as the wind blows, and the snow swirls carrying your footprints away — are warned not by conquering, but by doing, and now look for the next summit to stand on — and know the sun will be even warmer there as it steps into your heart, your soul — So go now climb your mountains, stand atop your summits and enjoy the golden moments of your life.
