Nineteen ninety-six brings about many things at Lisle. Memories, hopes, and dreams will be created by each class and remembered by everyone in the years to come. High school happens only once, and the friendships, good times, and high level of emotion cannot be recreated. We will build feelings this year and hold these cherished thoughts close for the rest of our lives. Thus, we invite you to take another look at the fun times, people, and friendships of 1996 at L.H.S.

HERE WE GO AGAIN

BACK ON TRACK

Once again, the noises of lockers clanging together and people talking can be heard in the hallways of Lisle High School. School is back in session, and excitement fills the air. Students and teachers gather together and discuss how short the summer really was.

The year ahead of us seems to last forever, 9 whole months! Before we realize it, it will be the last day of school and the Seniors will be graduating. But for now, it's back to school, back to the classes, the homework, and the friends. One student said, "It is great to see all my friends again, I missed seeing them over the summer."

The Freshmen are the first to arrive, eager to find their classrooms and their lockers. The Seniors are the last to arrive—having been in the school for 3 years, they know what to expect. Yet this is a new year with new experiences, and no one can predict what will happen in the months ahead.

B LAZE OF SPIRIT

LIGHTS UP THE SKY

The 1995 Lisle Senior High bonfire was on a Friday night, October 6th. The night was somewhat cold and a few drops of rain fell, but standing next to the fire kept you warm. The party was to start at 7:30 but unfortunately for the shivering onlookers, the fire was not lit until 8:00.

The fire was lit by the captains of Football, Cheerleading and Drill Team with the Queen Sarah Hudzick and King Pat Sarb. Phil Hartman, Brian Davis, and Josh Luman were the band for the night. Despite the cold weather it stopped no one from dancing and dancing they did, all the way through the famous Grease songs, that everyone seems to know by heart. People listened to captain Colin Mulacek as he gave a speech that fired up the people for the next day's big Homecoming football game against Sandwich. The night ended at 9:30 when people parted and gathered to say good-bye and to head off to their own hangouts and to have the night last a long time as long as it can and as long as it should.

TAKE A WALK ON THE WILD SIDE

JUST WALK DOWN THE HALLS

This year's Homecoming spirit week was kicked off by class color day which showed just how spirited our school is. In that event the juniors came in first, faculty in second, seniors in third, the sophomores in fourth, and last but not least the freshmen. The juniors led the entire week coming in first everyday. This was the first year that the faculty competed with the students during spirit week. Tuesday the school was dressed from hair rollers to slippers for Pajama Day. On Wednesday the college apparel was sported, from the Notre Dame Fighting Irish to the Santa Cruz Banana Slugs. Thursday was the craziest day of all, guys dress like girls and girls dress like guys. Friday the final day showed the school's spirit, blue and white was everywhere, the sophomore hallway was decorated with streamers, balloons, and locker signs for the football players. This year's spirit week really showed that Lisle Senior High knows how to have fun and have a good time.

U PROAR OF PRIDE

RALLYING TO WIN

On October 6, 1995 students at Lisle Senior High turned the Lion's den into an uproar of pride. The theme, "These Are the Days", gave each class their own theme. The Freshmen had Cowboys, Sophomores had the Roman Age, Juniors got Man on the Moon, and the Senior class had Vietnam. Using those themes, the rally took off with the traditional break-throughs. The Seniors took first in that competition, followed by the Sophomores. The Juniors and Freshmen came in last. As that ended, a hush came over the crowd with the introduction of the Homecoming Court. On the court for the ladies was Sarah Hudzik, Sarah Pope, Tracy White, Courtney Dipert, Stacy Soliday, and Kelly Supernaw. For the men, there were Chris Jones, Pat Sarb, Brian Davis, Dave O'Donohue, Jason Geraskey, and Jim Hill. With suspense in the air Cari Panovich and Bob Jacobs announced Sarah Hudzik and Pat Sarb as Queen and King. Chris Jones and Courtney Dipert were runners-up. The rally ended with the cheerleaders and the drill team giving the school all they got to get pumped up.

SPIRIT SENSATION

COMPETITION AT ITS BEST

It is October first, the Sunday before homecoming. Lisle Senior High School students gather at Wilde Field for an afternoon of spirit and excitement.

The competition was kicked off by the class flag competition. Seniors came in first trailed by sophomores, freshmen, and juniors. Then the real competition began. Battles between classes started out with the food and winter clothes relays. Next up was the male drill teams followed by tug-o-war, arm wrestling, and balloon popping. Although all classes gave it their best, but there's only room for one winner. This year's top class was the sophomores, followed closely by the seniors, juniors, and freshmen.

Although this ended the days festivities, it kicked off the week's activities.

T OIL AND TRIUMPH

LISLE BATTLES SANDWICH

The judgment day finally arrived. This year's Homecoming games were a true test of strength for the Lions as they battled against the Sandwich Indians. Students of the past, present and future all gathered together to cheer on the Lions.

The day was kicked-off by the junior varsity game against The Indians. The major play of the game took place when Jarrod Jahnke blocked a kick and Anthony Ziellinski ran it in for a touchdown. Lisle took victory over Sandwich 19-0.

Following the junior varsity game came the presentation of the Homecoming court and the 1995 queen, Sarah Hudzik. The king, Patrick Sarb, was not present.

The football team was led onto the field by this year's captains Colin Mulacek and Phil Nowakowski. The Lions had a strong first half with a touchdown by John Davis. They went into the locker room at half time tied 7-7.

While the cheerleaders cheered throughout the game, the band, flag corps and drill team provided an exciting half-time show. The band performed Johnny Mambo with the flag corps and they featured the percussion in their Drumline. The band also accompanied the drill team in Yankee Doodle Dandy. The drill team was led by captains Sarah Hudzik and Aubrey Goliber. To finish the show the flag corps performed Carry On, Wayward Son led by captains Kelly Supernaw, Katie Carlson and Liz McMahon.

The Lions made a valiant effort but were overmatched by the Indians. The final score was 26-7 Sandwich.

THESE ARE THE DAYS

THIS WAS THE NIGHT

The anticipation was over when October 7th finally arrived. Over 300 students, after tedious preparation, were brought together in a swirl of purple and green for a night of fun and dancing. Lights were low and spirits were high as everyone grooved on the dance floor. Mixin' Mark played favorites such as "Y.M.C.A." and music from Grease. The dance was described as "A lot of fun", "Better than last year", and most agreed that it didn't last long enough.

There were some new additions to this year's homecoming. One was the camera man video taping footage for this year's video yearbook. Another was the souvenir T-shirts everyone received. But, there was still the tradition of king and queen, and this year's honors went to Pat Sarb and Sarah Hudzik.

All the hard work and preparation finally paid off as the decorations began to come down and the last song, "Kiss from a Rose", was played. Even though the dance was over, the night was just beginning. There were still dinners to go to and parties to attend. One thing, for sure, is that the memories of Homecoming '95 will be with those whom attended for years to come.

THE LANGUAGE OF LIFE

Usually when people think about learning a language, they think about a foreign language. But as a matter of fact, you are learning a language every day when you go to your English class.

The expression of every thought you make is in English. That's why you attend your English class. In your English class, you should be enhancing how to express these thoughts. Just think of how difficult it would be to explain something, if you could not use English.

English goes hand in hand with ourselves being individuals. How would we be different if we didn't speak English? English shapes our personalities by our usage of the language.

English can have a calming influence over us. It can make us civilized through the usage of it. English can calm you, especially after not being able to use this for even an hour. All the people who have been in a foreign country know what I mean.

English is comforting, helps us be individuals, and expresses our thoughts. Only one class can do all this for you, and that is your English class. The teaching of what other language can delve as deeply as English can?

CALCULATED CONFUSION

IT ALL ADDS UP

The sounds of chalk scraping over slate boards multiplied by twenty-five—this was math class one hundred years ago. You are told that math class is one of the most important classes to take.

Recently with the new TI-82 calculators, class is so much simpler! The calculators do practically everything for you! You hardly have to draw graphs by hand anymore because you can just type in the equation and the calculator graphs it for you. There is no more writing out hard problems; just press a button on the TI-82.

The math classes offered at Lisle Senior High School are: general math, pre-algebra, algebra I, geometry, algebra II, pre-calculus, and calculus. Most of the teachers are available before and sometimes after school just to make sure that their students truly understand their assignments.

Math plays a very important part in everyone's life. It is in almost everything you do whether you realize it or not. It is essential to know math to be accurate for almost all jobs. The programs here help make mathematical skills come more easily for the students.

ARCHAIC MEMORIES

HISTORIC DREAMS

Many people say history is not a practical class for life. But what these people don't know is that history is very practical for life.

Some very clever person once said that history repeats itself. This is why history has a sense of urgency in today's society. If history was not taught how would all the world leaders learn from their mistakes? We would be doomed to repeat the same things over and over again.

At the same time, social studies can teach us how the world is arranged. It tells us where things are placed on the map, and in another sense, how social order works in today's society.

Being well educated is essential in today's society, hence the term worldly. Without your history class, you wouldn't be very well educated at all. So these are just some of the reasons why history is a very practical subject for life.

LABS, LABS, LABS

BALANCING EQUATIONS

"Labs, labs, and more labs!" says Mr. Peters, "is what the students mostly do in the science classes." Science is one of the few fun classes in the school. There are four basic types of classes: Physical Science, is what people should know in the world and it also helps students to make intelligent decisions in society. Biology, is the understanding of where people are in the world and how people and other things can affect the food chain of life. There are also Chemistry and Physics which require labs and deal with the understanding of how and why things work and from what they are made.

This year there is also a new class Math Science, and Technology. This class is two periods long and counts as two credits. Based on questions about technology, this class uses science and mathematics to solve these. Students also explore physics and chemistry using technology to help figure out the answers to the questions. At the beginning of this year students in the class explored motion, sound, and music using calculators, computers, and keyboards which are all technologies of our world today.

Speaking as science chairman, Mr. Peters said that, science takes the thought process and forms it into knowledge that students can use. It also teaches them how to logically and orderly approach and solve the problems and questions in our society.

CROSSROADS OF COMMUNICATION

CONTEMPLATE THE WORD

Do you know how to answer the question, comment tu t'appelles, or como te llamas? Well, for those students who think the answer may be oui or si, a foreign language will be beneficial.

Students have the opportunity of exploring new horizons when taking a foreign language.

At Lisle Senior High School, both French and Spanish classes are offered to students. In these classes, students not only learn how to speak the language, but they also learn a bit of culture.

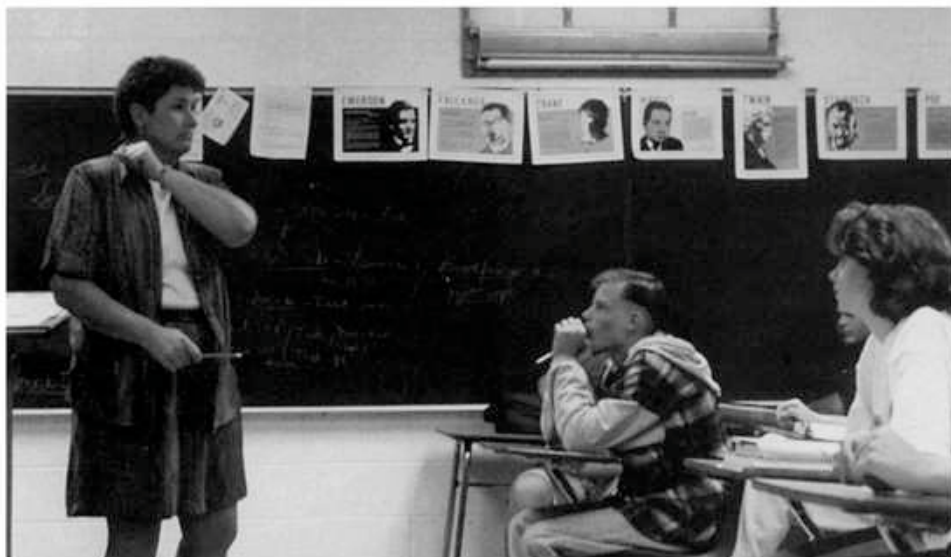

Senora Sally says, "Spanish class is different from other classes because we sing, dance, and eat churros." Student Mike Knowles says,

"Spanish is one of the funnest classes I've ever had."

Good comments about foreign language aren't just limited to Spanish, student Valerie Ayerty says, "There is no class I would like to be in more because French is fun and inspiring." Madame Chovelak says "Un jour sans la classe de francais c'est comme un jour sans soleil."

For those students who need a translator comment tu t'appelles and como te llamas both mean what is your name, and this is what Ms. Chovelak said, "A day without French class is a day without sun."

DECIPHER THE DIALECT

BACK TO BASICS

Imagine yourself living in a country and having trouble communicating with others around you. This year four Lisle Senior High School students are faced with that problem every day. Through a program called ESL these students expand their knowledge of the English language.

Mrs. Kratzer is in charge of ESL, which stands for English as a Second Language. This year all of the students speak Spanish, but in the previous years there was a wide variety of languages. Every Tuesday and Thursday during fourth and fifth periods she helps them improve their knowledge and comprehension of the English language. She also assists them in subjects in school and on test taking. When I asked Mrs. Kratzer what kind of topics they discussed she responded, "Everything- just like a teenager". ESL gives students a chance to enjoy America.

LIFE'S A PLAYGROUND

LIVE IT UP

When we were younger and someone would ask us what our favorite time of the day was, most would respond- recess! Now that we are older and don't have that hour of fun, we have gym.

From archery to badminton and rollerskating to football the class covers the gamut of sports and physical fitness.

While most girls use this time to talk about the latest gossip and the guys use this time to strut their stuff, the class focuses on learning the tricks and rules to the games as well as improving skills. Skills, ability, participation, and hard work are all qualities of the gym program at Lisle. The gym teachers, including Mr. and Mrs. Sanko, Mr. Steben, Mrs. Kane, and Mr. D'Amico, don't only emphasize skill tests but written tests as well.

Gym for many is a time of relief from sometimes boring, always stressful, academic classes. Seniors in sports, Sophomores in health, and those people who just aren't athletically inclined are the few exceptions.

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT

TASTE THE DIFFERENCE

In elementary school, lunch was a nutritious meal in the middle of the school day. You would go to the cafeteria, unlock that lunchbox and eat your sandwiches.

But times have changed, and now lunch is mostly a social gathering—a time to finish homework, with the usual junk food on the side. The snack bar is considered the most popular with its wide assortment of snacks like Doritos, nachos, and cupcakes. There's always hot lunches, let's not forget those. Pizza and fries with milk are the most popular these days. Health gurus get an unlimited supply of salad.

Yes, our lunch is said to be the cornerstone of every nutritious lunch.

But does our lunch really satisfy every student? It should now, after the changes and improvements made to the lunch service. This year we have a new lunch service due to questions about the healthiness of the food. The new company, Arbor, is our new supplier and is trying to help us eat better. Do students like it? "I really didn't notice the change but now that you mention it, the food does seem . . . healthier," says Chris Erickson.

HUMANITARIANS UNITE

GREAT MINDS THINK ALIKE!!

Two days out of every week eleven upperclassmen leave lunch C to eat with Mr. Beato. Why you may ask? The answer is that they are Humanities members and they discuss the elements of fine art, literature, theatre, and human relations.

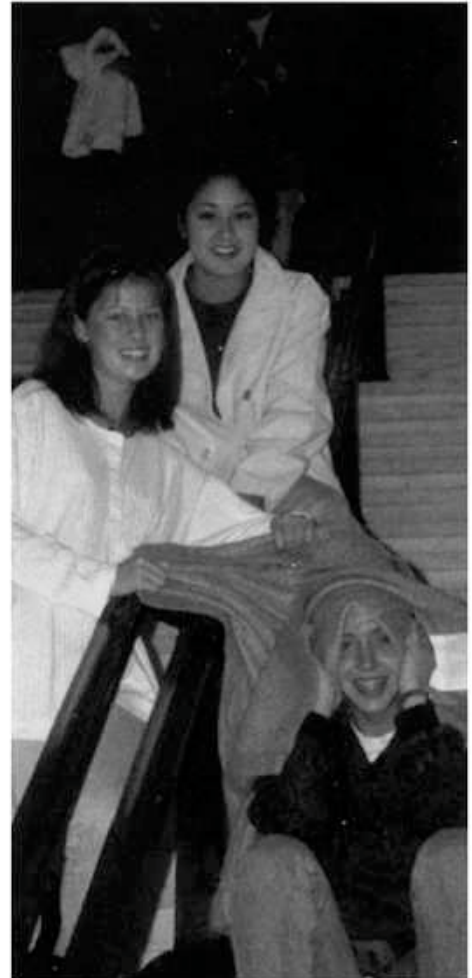

Humanities students experience these issues through field trips and group discussions. This year they visited the Monet exhibit at the Art Institute, the zoo, various plays, and an architectural tour of downtown Chicago. During these activities they try to find what the power, force, conflict, changes or theme of the event is.

According to Ana Lee, "Humanities offers many benefits that are worth the sacrifices we make for it. For a bit of our time and money, we learn about things that do not pertain to one subject, but rather all of them. It teaches us about history, culture, philanthropy, and the world around us. We receive the opportunity to enjoy plays and museums. A side benefit is a half credit in fine arts that we may need to enter the college of our choice."

The knowledge the upperclassmen gain through their experiences is very important because during the second semester they share this knowledge with underclassmen Humanities members. They teach through games and activities designed to communicate a specific concept or idea. This gives them the foundation to expand on these ideas and concepts in their own lives.

PASSING THE TIME

BETTER THAN STUDY HALL

What would Mr. Mensik do without them? He would actually have to deliver the passes himself! "Attendance and guidance office workers play a big part in having the school day run as smoothly as possible," says attendance office secretary Mrs. Reum.

What does it take to be an office worker? Well you must be willing to give up your study hall. That might not be a bad thing according to Christy Herter. "You get to do stuff; you don't have to sit in the study hall and stare at the clock." An office worker would need to know the layout of the school, since you will be delivering passes to every room. Finally, you must be able to follow directions as given by the big man himself, Mr. Mensik.

Being an office worker does have its perks. You get to put your picture on the office workers' collage, and sometimes the secretaries will bring in treats to show their appreciation for a job well done. Working in the attendance or guidance office could best be summed up by Melanie Chernesky, "It's just fun to be in here!"

HALF SCHOOL, HALF WORK

EARNING MONEY

In what class can students earn money? Co-op! That stands for cooperative education, a class taught by Mrs. Conroy and Mr. Bonomo. This special class combines a regular class hour with a paid part-time job. Getting out of school to go to work appeals to only 15 students (13 seniors and 2 juniors).

Some sample jobs include being a clerk at Blockbuster Video, a cashier at Dave's Car Wash, and a receptionist at a real estate office. Some other companies that employ Co-op students are Molex, the Chicago Tribune, and the Lisle Public Library. On an average, students make about $100 per week, before taxes.

Classes during the school day are an essential part of Co-op. Class discussions focus on a wide range of topics including employment contracts, unions, investments, corporate hiring trends, current events, and guest speakers.

The main purpose of Co-op is to give students the opportunity to go beyond "textbook" learning. When asked if she would recommend Co-op, Mrs. Conroy responded, "Co-op gives students something that all employers want—experience."

Erika Wenban

LEARNING TODAY FOR A BETTER TOMORROW

How would you like to leave school at 12:30 everyday? Davea students do just this, except instead of going home, they go to work. These students go to school until after lunch, then they board a bus and ride to Addison, where they receive education in the workplace.

Davea is a program in which high school students learn about a certain career field. Students can choose from twenty-four different careers. Lisle students participate in Auto Body Mechanics, Aviation, Cosmetology, Child Care, and Media Technology.

Lisle High School sends fifteen students to Davea everyday. According to Ms. Loos, "Some learn job skills for employment opportunities, and some study something they will study in college." COD gives credit for courses at Davea that could be taken at the college, called articulated credit. This can be a big help in saving money and time. Davea provides self-esteem and skills to students while challenging them to the fullest.

IMAGINATION AND CREATIONS

A PLATEAU OF PERFECTION

Ever walk past the art room, glance inside, and wonder what really goes on in art class? Have you maybe thought about taking a class but assumed stick people were the extent of your artistic ability? Well, maybe you should reconsider. Art isn't just for those who can paint like Picasso, but can benefit everyone (even you!)

So what is art, anyway? According to Webster, art is "creative work and its principles, making or doing things that display form, beauty, and unusual perception." According to Mrs. Godfrey (Lisle's art instructor), "Art is a part of culture, without it, we would lose a whole lot of what people are all about." Think you might want to give art a try? If so, you've got a couple of choices. Some of the classes offered at Lisle are art 1 and 2, drawing and painting, ceramics 1, 2, 3, and sometimes 4 and 5. Mrs. G also teaches art workshop. This is a class where students use their own ideas and creativity to design their own projects.

All the art classes at Lisle are taught by Mrs. Godfrey. She hopes that through her classes, students "get a feeling for what art is like in the world, and therefore, better appreciate what they see in the world around them." Through her encouragement and advice, Mrs. G has shown her faith that maybe we can all do a little better than just stick figures.

COOKING AND COLORING

THE ART OF BEING A GROWNUP

Cooking food that you can eat and playing with little kids. Sound like fun? Well, those are some of the things that you actually get graded on in Home Economics. Home Ec. is divided into three general classes: Food Prep., Child Development, and Single Survival.

Food Prep. teaches students about nutrition and how to prepare foods such as apple pie and twice-baked potatoes. "The best part of class is getting to eat what you make," says student Janna Ginder.

Another fun aspect of Home Ec. is the Child

Development class offered to all grades. Child Development involves having children come in three days a week for a preschool atmosphere. Students spend time planning activities that not only promote learning, but are fun.

The third branch of Home Ec. is Single Survival. This class teaches juniors and seniors basic skills such as planning budgets and decorating rooms. Everything that they need to know about surviving in the real world.

GET OUT OF MY DREAMS GET INTO MY CAR

Driver's Education is definitely one of the high points of a sophomore's year. After all, being able to drive gives you a freedom that no words can describe. But, it also brings responsibility, and this is what Mr. Green and Mr. Gollan are trying to teach Lisle students. Lessons are divided between in the classroom and on the road. Classes involve lots of workbook assignments, article summaries, and tests. Driving lessons include such things as parallel parking, three-point turns, and highway driving.

Student Stephanie Lantz says, "The fun part is getting to drive during the day and watching the funny movies." "Mr. Green is patient, laid-back, and he let's you go through the car wash," says student Cassie Davis.

After a quarter of hard work, students must pass an in-class final and take a final driving test, both of which are considered difficult. All of this hard work does pay off. After what seems like an extremely long wait, students receive their blue-slips in the mail, and they are then able to get their license as soon as they turn sixteen. Then they are able to stop worrying about U-turn tests and article summaries and start worrying about things such as insurance and gas money.

THE FUTURE IS NOW

WILL WONDERS EVER CEASE

Today's world is constantly growing and changing. Many Lisle students have taken an active interest in the changing world and are working towards improving it as time goes on. They are doing this through the technology program.

The technology department includes technology and technical drawing. These courses are taught by Mr. King.

Technology takes place in the technology

lab. In this course, students learn how to use the equipment and create new ideas and technological advances.

Technical drawing is also a technology class. The curriculum includes the use of computers and special graphing programs. As senior Eric Galloway states, "Technical drawing is fun and it helps to provide a good background for many careers involving technology."

The Industrial Arts program is certainly one of the most underestimated academic class in our school. With it's three types of classes, it's one of the strongest. The students learn the skills that are necessary for a successful career in any line of work.

Photography is an important medium in today's world. It's very useful to know how to process your own film. Today's camera is evolving and there is no time to waste.

Woodshop is no longer the defunct class of the past. The joys of woodshop are enjoyed by all. "It's fun and exciting," says Bob Kuttner. "What other class can you punch a nail through someone's finger?" Jake Lindgren knows all about that. "It happened to me. It wasn't funny."

Technical Drawing gives students the abilities necessary in the computer evolving world. By learning the CAD system, they have begun the journey down the road to the future.

When you look into the mirror, what is it that you see?
You think you are made of flaws, but they aren't flaws to me.
You think you are too big in places, and in others, way too small.

Do you see your wonderful hair that I wish I could have?
Do you see your pretty eyes that sparkle when you laugh?
Not only can't you see your outer beauty that goes from head to toe,
You can't see your inner qualities that do not always show.
The ability to listen and always help a friend.
The way you care for others, an unselfishness that will not end.
But what good is this if you can't see yourself for who you are and what you do,
If you will never be happy with the reflection looking back at you?

LAST EMBRACE

Tears ran down my face
and onto my lips;
You softly wiped them away
with your gentle fingertips;
I looked sadly into your sparkling blue eyes;
I tried really hard but could not muffle my cries;
You held me tight in your warm embrace;
I rested my head on your chest and buried my face;
As we were saying our last good-bye;
I realized something-you also began to cry
Our last embrace ended with a sweet kiss;
There was so much about you I knew I would miss;
As you walked away I wondered my fate;
With my only true love in a far away state.

EARS OF BLINDNESS

listen to me
learn from me
learn from all
you do not listen
I am faceless
ageless
hopeless, in your eyes
your stubborn mind has taken over your thought you are haunted by me
are you afraid of my free mind?
yes, it is free
I am free
free like the eagle
but concealed like the evil
no need to be scared of me
I am you

ALL THE WORLD IS A STAGE

THE MEN AND WOMEN IN IT MERELY PLAYERS

It is the ability to entertain, to make an audience laugh or cry, the thrill of applause, the power to change and the suspension of disbelief. It is the art of acting, which is the basis of the International Thespians Society.

This is an organization made up of individuals with a love for theater. They participate in a number of events throughout the year. Lisle has two main productions. The fall play this year was Ken Kesey's "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest." The cast had the rare opportunity to meet Kesey and learn more about his writings.

"Man of La Mancha" was this year's spring musical, a more difficult play than in past years, requiring a smaller cast.

This year Lisle thespians will be saying goodbye to their director Mrs. Fiore. Although she is leaving, the love of theater at Lisle will hopefully live on.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS

"Our Key Club is a great club and it gives the average student a chance to help the community and have fun at the same time," commented Jake Rebus.

That best sums up the Lisle Key Club, the largest school club with over 120 members and one of the most active. The Key Club is a community service organization that works with the Lisle Kiwanis Club.

The club focuses on raising money for the homeless and sponsoring food drives, toy drives, PADS, and dances. One of the most successful of the drives was the Homeless Sleepout at the Post Office. They raised over $200 and a truckload of clothes. With Mrs. Godfrey, Sarah Hudzik, Nadine Duffield, and Jake Rebus behind the work, there is no doubt that this is one of the most active.

But all this hard work doesn't come without reward. The Holiday Embrace, held at the Hyatt in Schamburg, was a success. Over 30 Lisle club members attended the dance, everyone had fun. "We were definitely the most wildest and wackiest school there," says Andy Lupole.

PRESENT-DAY MONETS

The National Art Honor Society is a select group of students through their effort, attitude, and sense of dedication in the field of art have consistently demonstrated the highest qualities in art scholarship, service, and character.

Each year the National Art Honor Society publicly acknowledges a select number of high school students throughout the United States who have achieved this level of excellence.

The members are sophomores, juniors, and seniors and maintain a B average in art courses. The students go to the Art Institute on a working tour. The NAHS program has been in existence at Lisle High School for five years.

"To become a member of the NAHS, the students fill out an application and submit a piece of their art work, this art is critiqued by a panel of art teachers. The membership is announced at honors night in the spring with the work by the new members is on exhibit."

These creative individuals have made valuable contributions to the school, community, and society.

HELPING HANDS WORKING TOGETHER

This year's staff of students gathered together at meetings to discuss the 5 step process called the helping skill. This is an ongoing training process to help out the students assist their peers with problems. Although helping comes naturally these sporadic meetings help update the helping strategies taught through the years. Each year the students get a chance to experience going to a retreat which was only open to the new freshmen members this year. Another duty for the members is to help make the natural helpers a bigger part of the school and this year the students have done a great job expressing this.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AN OUTDOORSMEN COMMUNE

Science Outdoorsmen is an equal opportunity club that anyone can join. There is no fee to join. So it is equitable for all students to partake. Mr. Bates is the leader of this outdoorsmen commune. Our identical prerequisites to get in provide for a positive attitude towards the club and its causes for the environment. There are no officers since every member is indistinguishable. "We feel inner peace due to our likeness," Mr. Bates says, "although I had to let our mascot, the salamander, go, I still feel we are a strong prosperous club because we are all equals." The club will be thinking about planning tentative road trips to the Morton Arboretum, Argonne National Laboratory, Gotham City Refinery in Braidwood, or Yellowstone National Park. And the dreamers in the group are looking towards an African Safari in Botswana. We are also hoping to learn more about horticulture, pointing, and marine biology.

DRUGS NO MORE

SAY NO MORE

TASC is one of Lisle's many clubs. TASC stands for teen assisting student concerns. Its purpose is to promote students esteem and awareness about drugs.

TASC holds various activities throughout the year. They held a new student breakfast to welcome all the newcomers to our school. The club also decorates the school for Red Ribbon Week, which is to promote awareness about drugs. There is also time for TASC to unwind and have fun at their lock-in.

Every year TASC takes some of its members and officers to the IDEA conference. IDEA stands for Illinois Drug Education Alliance. IDEA is a conference in which people attend different lectures on self-esteem and social issues.

BORDERS OF FRIENDSHIP

CROSSING OCEANS AND BEYOND

Imagine for a moment travelling to exciting, new places and experiencing new cultures. AFS makes it possible to do just that. AFS or American Field Service, is an organization that is set up to let people see the differences of life all over the world.

This year, Lisle is very involved, sending one of our own students, Irene Panos, to Ecuador for a year. We've also been lucky to receive two students from other countries. Thomas Aeschi from Zug, Switzerland, and Ksenia Kalvgina from Augarski, Russia.

AFS is not just for students who want to travel to far off countries, but AFS has many other activities, such as helping out with dinner theatre, a welcome picnic for the exchange students, as well as several short-term exchanges. According to Mrs. Pope, who along with Mrs. Romano, is the AFS sponsor, "AFS gives kids a chance to get to know more about other cultures and for visiting students to learn about the culture here." It is an opportunity to meet new people and learn about the diversities of life.

HITTING THE SLOPES HIGH ON LIFE!

The coolest club of Lisle, of course, is ski club. The ski club members join for the pure thrill of the week-long spring break trip to Winter Park, Colorado. The expectations and the twenty-two hour train ride start out the action-packed adventure. Mrs. Fiore, for the last time this year, will be accompanying thirty-five of the seventy plus students in ski club on this excursion.

This year's board includes: Jamie Simmons and Jason Gerasky as co-presidents, Dana Netzel as vice-president, Kristin Knizner as secretary, Chris Jones as treasurer, and Jamie Arceri as the student congress representative.

► Stacy quickly hurries to finish by the deadline while Allison searches for a clock

"What time is it?" That was one question that was never answered by the 1995-96 yearbook staff. This year the staff moved from the miniscule CRC room next to the library to the computer room, 203, upstairs. This move created more space for the veritable fusillade of creativity from the minds of twenty staff members, though they were denied a clock.

The environment of the yearbook classroom is a little different. Although there are writing assignments and spelling tests, there is also a lot of vocal creativity. After every section of the yearbook is completed, the staff celebrates with a deadline party. For the December deadline the staff's sponsor, Mrs. Weis, had everyone over to make Christmas cookies. "Painting nails and making cookies has never been so much fun," says Mike Melichar.

The staff also took part in helping Chuck Schreiber of International Video yearbook produce the first ever audio visual version of Vale. This change opened new doors for the staff who got to help write scripts and make top ten lists of favorites at Lisle.

Being a part of the yearbook staff helps create memories to look back upon. The staff will always remember the innards, candy hearts, Adam Ant, deadline stress, solitaire, sliced pictures, cookie towers, spiffy, moist, and gauche. Despite giddiness, they worked together to create a book for everyone. Yeah Thanks!

LEADER OF THE PACK

TAKING CONTROL

You might ask yourself how important is student congress. Without the student congress you wouldn't have all of the Homecoming activities including the decath-o-rama, the pep rally, spirit week the bonfire, and even the dance. Prom is just another activity that the student congress organizes. The student congress also participates with community service projects, such as raking leaves and shoveling snow for those who need help, fund raisers for the school, and the annual food drive for the needy at Christmas time.

A group of students from all grades are elected into the positions. Aubrey Goliber was this year's president along with Cari Panovich as Vice-president. Dana Netzel holds the place of secretary and Jill Panovich is the treasurer. Brian Davis and Sarah Pope hold the offices of publicity chair people. Mrs. Truemper, the student congress sponsor, helps to make sure things get done and also helps oversee ideas and fundraisers.

The student congress brings the students together to accomplish the goals of the school. School spirit is enhanced by the spirit of the Student Congress and is carried out by its activities.

EXPLORING THEATRICAL BOUNDRIES

A DAZZLING DREAM ARENA

Three full days of fun, friends, and theater. This is what fourteen of Lisle's Thespians experienced at this year's Illinois Theatre Festival which was held at ISU. They experienced many different activities intended to improve their dramatic talent.

These activities included a variety of workshops ranging from set building to improv to character analysis. They had something for everyone and everything in between. There were full length plays, showcases, auditions, and the All-State production. Lisle is proud to have had three of their students perform in the All-State production of "Man of La Mancha:" Patrick Sarb, Katie Carlson, and Kevin Schoenbach.

Michelle Jessen feels that "through workshops and the opportunity to observe other theater departments, you can learn to better your own acting abilities." Theatre fest was a great opportunity for all that attended. According to Kurt Bogseth, "Theatre fest shows you that in order to be successful, you have to go out there and try new things, test the waters and see what you are good at, then go from there."

Kick off the show,
Toss the flags high,
Blast the sound,
Work the meter,
March the drill,
Hit the interval,

Look at the crowd,
Hear the applause,
Play the reprise,
March and retreat,
Rest and repeat,

This is the essence of a half-time show given by the Lisle High School band.

The band has grown dramatically, from 77 members to 102 members, in one year. This year's band is the largest Lisle has ever seen. In order to get to know the freshmen better, and make them feel like they were part of the band family, Drum Majors Stacy Soliday and Sean Carrell started the year with a new tradition called the Freshmen Wake-Up call. An organized group of senior leaders woke-up all the incoming freshmen at 6:00 a.m. and took them to breakfast at Omega on the first day of band clinics.

In order to prepare for a productive marching band season, the Drum Majors, and student leaders attended a Fred J. Miller clinic over the summer. Stacy was honored as the most outstanding Drum Major.

This group is always doing something throughout the year. From early morning rehearsals, sectionals, and after school practices, to unloading the fruit truck, and standing like a statue for what felt like hours on end, in the scorching heat, rain, or snow, this group proves that they are definitely not a bunch of wimps.

SINGIN' LOUD, SINGIN' PROUD

SWEET HARMONY

If you happen to pass by the music room during first hour this year stop and listen. You won't hear the band or another band sectional, you will hear Lisle's up and coming choir.

This year is Mrs. Kerback's third year at Lisle, and the choir continues to improve. The choir has almost doubled in size since last year. They also, for the first time, had auditions for the swing choir. The organization is working very hard to build a better future for itself.

The choir has a lot to sing about this year.

They performed at many different district concerts. They also attended the conference swing and concert choir festivals as well as making several special appearances within the community. The choir performed a variety of music ranging from classical to rock.

The choir isn't all business, however. Dancing, long bus rides, making new friends and early morning back rubs are only a few of the fun memories of being a member of the choir.

ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST

... ACTING AS WARRIORS IN EVERYDAY LIFE

This year's AFS dinner theatre production of Dale Wasserman's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest was a big hit.

What made this year's show so great? Maybe it's because the entire cast spent an evening with Ken Kesey, author of the original novel which the movie and stage play were later based on. Kesey spoke at UIC, promoting his new book, "The Last Go Round." After the program, cast members had the opportunity to present Kesey with a T-shirt, and get his autograph.

Kesey stressed the importance of being warriors in everyday life — standing up for what you believe in without backing down. Honestly portraying the story of the various characters in a mental ward became a major goal of the cast and crew.

Cuckoo's Nest is the story of Nurse Ratched, Chief Bromden, R.P. McMurphy, and many other patients in a mental institution of the 1960's. Through all of the cruel things that take place on the ward, it is a story about human behavior in its best and worst forms. The Chief learns how to be a man, and the patients learn how to survive in the ward.

The end result was one of the best shows that Lisle has ever seen. As Mrs. Flore proudly says: "My cast members are warriors!"

WELL DESERVED VACATION MOVIN' ON OUT

Mr. Ciesielski, Mrs. Cunat, Mrs. Fiore, and Mrs. Godfrey all have something in common; they are all retiring this year.

These four teachers were all asked a list of five questions, this is how they responded:

How long have you worked here?

Mr. Ciesielski: 36 years.

Mrs. Cunat: 18 years.

Mrs. Fiore: since September of 1969.

Mrs. Godfrey: since 1978.

What activities have you sponsored here at LSHS?

Mr. Ciesielski: varsity football coach, varsity basketball coach, varsity track coach, and varsity cross country coach.

Mrs. Cunat: Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA).

Mrs. Fiore: Ski Club, Thespians, and drama director.

Mrs. Godfrey: Key Club, junior class sponsor, sets for fall plays and spring musicals, and National Art Honor Society.

What classes have you taught?

Mr. Ciesielski: Biology, physical education, and drivers Ed.

Mrs. Cunat: Social Studies, business, and psychology.

Mrs. Fiore: Speech, persuasion, drama, interpersonal communications, and film.

Mrs. Godfrey: Art 1, Art 2, ceramics 1 and 2, commercial art, drawing and painting, art workshop, and jewelry.

When did you decide you wanted to teach?

Mr. Ciesielski: When my father was a laborer, I decided to get an education so I wouldn't have to do manual labor for the rest of my life.

Mrs. Cunat: First two years of college I decided I wanted to be a teacher.

Mrs. Fiore: I wanted to become a teacher in 1967.

Mrs. Godfrey: The year after graduating from college because I got offered a teaching job.

What is one of your philosophies?

Mr. Ciesielski: "Treat everybody kindly."

Mrs. Cunat: "If you have a goal, stick with it and enjoy life as you are accomplishing it."

Mrs. Fiore: "Theatre is life."

Mrs. Godfrey: "Theatre is life."

Lisle will remember these four teachers and hopefully they will remember Lisle.

ADMINISTRATION

There we were in the yearbook room, simply seeking a quote from a member of the administration. We went to the office to speak to Mr. Logeman, our school principal. We were disappointed that he wasn't available. Leaving the office, we bumped into Mr. Mensik, the assistant principal, and asked him what he liked about being on the administration. He said, "The variety. I like the opportunity to meet students. Most of all . . ." Then Mr. Mensik took the opportunity to yell out at a student in the commons saying, "Michael!!! Don't play any games!!!!" Turning back to us he said, "Is that all you need?" We told him that it was, thanked him for his time, and walked back to the yearbook room.

We realized how important the administration is to our school. From school board to principal to athletic coordinator, they do things like determining policies, balancing the budget, planning the school calendar, setting curriculum, and keeping order in the school.

What we learned about the administration was: "Lisle without the administration would be like a book without a cover."

COUNSELORS AND LIBRARIANS

Who do you turn to for help? You might not realize it, but some of the most resourceful people at Lisle are your counselors and librarians. The two counselors are Mr. Anderson and Ms. Loos. The counselors help you choose colleges, help with scholarship application, and straighten out class schedules. They are always available to talk about any other problem that students might have.

The librarians, Ms. Lund and Mrs. Weis, are ready to recommend a good book or help you find resources for a project. To give students greater access to information, the library has networked CD's. Encyclopedias to career planners to full text newspapers are now available. Because of this new technology, students have an advantage they never had before.

Counselors and librarians, armed with information and advice, are ready and willing to help.

CLASS OF '99

All of their lives they've been waiting to get here, and now that they are finally here they have discovered that it's not everything that "90210" showed it to be. High School is, however, a big change from Junior High. Smaller lockers, foreign language classes, and one less period are just some of the differences that this year's Freshman has to deal with. It isn't easy going from the top of your school to the bottom, but being a freshman class has its advantages. One is getting to experience your first Homecoming. This year's freshmen made a valiant effort. They even tied for first place for the float competition. Another advantage is being able to chew gum without getting a lunch detention. For all of the freshmen, this year is the beginning of a great adventure that will take them from Homecomings to Proms, from pep rallies to driving. It will eventually leave them with two things, memories and friends that will be with the freshmen class of '99 for a lifetime.

CLASS OF '98

They came, they saw, and they defeated everyone (including the seniors). By taking first in the Decathorama, the sophomore class accomplished what they set out to do freshman year and proved to everyone that they are definitely one of the most spirited classes to walk through the halls of L.H.S. There were a few differences from freshman year, such as driver's ed., consumer's ed., and biology. Another big difference was that they are no longer at the bottom of the school. One of the best things about being a sophomore is getting your license. No longer will they need to be chauffeured around by their parents. There also isn't all the worrying about college that will come next year. For now, they are the sophomore class of '98, and they are in a class by themselves.

CLASS OF '97

This year's Junior class was full of spirit and enthusiasm. All the excitement started before school when people talked about being "upper classmen." The Juniors all worked together to make '95 the best year possible. This year's academics were very complicated including Chemistry and U.S. History, the two popular courses for Juniors. Throughout the year the most talked about subject was college. Juniors chit chatted with friends and counselors about the stressful decision that will change their lives forever. Prom was a first many juniors experienced this year. All memories, both good and bad, will be looked back on as the Juniors move on to their Senior year.

CLASS OF '96

As the Senior Class entered their final year of high school all they could think about was scholarships, applications, and Graduation Day. As the year past, however, they took a look at the freshman and thought of how quickly the years have gone. Along with gaining a diploma, they have gained experience, memories, and life-long friends. As Freshman, they thought about grades, as Sophomores they thought of Driver's Ed., as Juniors they thought of being Seniors, and as Seniors they thought of the future while never forgetting the past. On May 31, as they exit through the front doors for the last time, they wave good-bye to the past and say hello to the future.

LOOKING INTO THE PAST

Presenting the Graduating Jr. High Class of 1992! Remember how long ago that was? Four years. ALL the fun that was had with all the rolling of the jeans and the always fun and interesting Time out room? Remember how we became the first 8th grade class to break the tradition of going to Springfield? We went to Chicago instead. The A-1 Beanery, the famous restaurant was where we all had the general dislike of coleslaw and how it led to the infamous Pyramid O' Coleslaw. What fun we all had! The last dance of our Jr. High year, the 8th grade dance, the cool music that was being played, that yes we all danced to. Those three years were spent in innocence. Those were the days, the days we should remember.

ANOTHER LITTLE LOOK

PHIL HARTMAN

Dear Philip,

It seems like yesterday that you looked up at me with that angelic face and now I look up at you, a responsible young man. Phil, you have always been a joy in my life. Keep your wonderful sense of humor. It never hurts to leave 'em laughin'. Or remember what you are always telling me; "Prepare for the worst, but hope for the best." The very best to you, dear son, you deserve it!

With all my love,
MOM

KEVIN SHOENBACH

Dear Kevin,

You make us laugh and give us so much pleasure with your music. We are so proud of you and know that because you are such a hard worker, that you will succeed at anything you put your heart and mind into. Congratulations, and we hope that you will be happy in your life, work, and love. We'll always be here for you with open arms and hugs ready.

We love you!
Mom, Dad, and Sarah

MICHAEL SEVILLA

Dear Mike,

As you prepare for college to fulfill your dreams and hopes, we wish you the very best. Always remember that we're there for you.

Congratulations for this great accomplishment! You make us very proud!

Much love,
Mom, Dad, Melissa, and Kenn

JENNY HEATON

Dear Jenny,

You're very special to us! We hope you achieve much success and happiness in the years ahead.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Chadd

COLIN MULACEK

Dear Colln,

I can't believe how the years have flown! These are just the final seconds of the first game of your season. Keep your sensitivity, sense of humor, and self respect; they will be your strong offensive line in your game of life. We are proud of your accomplishments, and we are proud of you! We will always be your base of love and support, cheering you as you rise to the heights of your goals.

Hugs and Kisses,
Mom, Tanya, and Shawn

ANGIE BURRELL

Dear Angie,

You have brought so much joy into our lives. We are so proud of the person you've become. We're sure you will have no trouble reaching your goals. Congratulations Angelina, we love you!

God Bless and Keep You
All our love,
Dad and Mom

JASON LINDGREN

Dear Jason,

Words cannot express how proud we are of you. You have turned out to be such a fine young man. Work to achieve success. Remember, We Love You!!!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jake

DANIELLE MICHE'

Dear Danielle,

Congratulations sweetheart! Over the years as we have watched you grow taller and your hair grow shorter, we have come to know a very forthright and determined young woman. Continue to use the special talents the Lord has given you to bless the lives of others, and you will never fail.

We are so glad that the Heavenly Father sent you to be a part of our Eternal Family, and hope that you know how much we love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Nicole, Phil, Tim, and David

CHRIS DAVIS

Chris,

We are all extremely proud of you. You should be proud of yourself for all that you have accomplished during your high school years. We wish you love, success, and happiness. May all your dreams come true! Nothing is out of reach, follow your heart.

We love you!
Love,
Jenn, Dad, Karen, and Dusty

SARAH DOMBROW

Dear Sarah,

Roses are red. Bees make honey. I'll say something nice, if you give me some money. Where has the time gone? You have become a lovely young woman. You should be proud, we are. The world is at your feet, go get 'em! Congratulations!!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Greg, and Nicole
P.S. Thanks for the dough.

JAIME SIMMONS

Dear Jaime,

May God bless you on your journey! Wherever your path leads we will always love and be proud of you. Reach for the stars!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Tom, Brad, Jeannine, and Jim

JASON GERASKEY

Dear Jason,

We have always been proud of you. Thank you for being a wonderful son and brother. You have matured into a kind, sensitive, and responsible person, qualities that will help you succeed through lives many travels.

With Love Always
Mom, Dad, and Jenny

CHRIS TOKARSKI

Chris,

It seems like yesterday when this picture was taken! We have greatly enjoyed watching you grow through childhood and become your "own person". Our hopes and wishes are for all the best for you throughout your college years and for years to come.

Love,
Mom and Dad, Jenny and Maggie

APRYL LAGASCA

Apryl,

You'll always be our "Big Pinay"!

Love,
Mom and Dad

JOSH LUMAN

Dear Josh,

Since you are a person of very few words, here's a few more to always remember: "Keep playin the blues like all those great ones before you!"

Your greatest fans,
Mom and Dad

NICKOLE LANHAM

Dear Nickole,

Principled, strong of character, responsible, considerate of others, a ready smile—a young woman beautiful and strong in body and spirit. These are your accomplishments in the first eighteen years of your life— years with which we are well-pleased. They have been a joy and privilege to share with you. You are well-prepared for the life ahead. Our love goes with you.

Be well,
Grandma and Grandpa

BRAD ZWETZIG

Dear Brad,

Congratulations! You made it! You have what it takes to succeed— go for it! We are very proud of you, and we love you very much. We wish you much happiness and success in your future. May all your dreams come true and may God protect and guide you always! Remember— we'll always be there for you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

SHAWN BREEN

Dear Shawn,

CONGRATULATIONS! We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. Your determination to succeed and ability for hard work will bring you the goals you set forth to obtain.

With all of our love,
Mom and Dad
Colleen and Colin

DENISE EHRHART

Denise,

First, thank you for being a wonderful daughter. College won't be easy but you'll do just fine, just don't give up. Maybe college will help you start to control your red-headed temper. I love you very much. You hold me together sometimes. Thanks for being so special!

Love,
Mom

MARKO DIMITRIJEVIC

Dear Marko,

Questions in your eyes! You changed your continent, country, language, friends, but you stayed the same. You are serious and always our pride. Thank you, Marko, and continue until the questions from your eyes are answered!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Mirko

JOHN SCHMADEKE

Dear John,

As we write this, so many wonderful memories flash before us. We're so proud of you and all of your accomplishments, and we're excited about the future that lies ahead for you. Go for it! We love you very much.

Mom and Dad

NADINE DUFFIELD

Dear Nadine,

We always knew you would grow into a very beautiful and clever young lady. We were just never sure how beautiful and clever. You have greatly exceeded our hopes and dreams.

You have already achieved great things and climbed high mountains. Hold your head up high and enjoy your success with pride, joy, and happiness. You have earned that right.

Go forward onto college with the same attitude and determination that you showed in High School, and you will graduate in the class of 2000. Your time is now and your future is in your hands. We will always be there for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Kevin

KRISTIN KNIZNER

Dear Kristin,

You have given us such joy with your quick wit and sense of humor. You have made us so proud with all of your achievements in academics and sports. You have a great work ethic and sense of fair play. Always continue to stand up for your beliefs. Enjoy college, enjoy life, and remember— always follow your heart.

We love you,
Mom and Dad
Rick and Jeff

DAN SAROFIM

Dan,

It's hard to believe that you are already graduating from school this year. We are so proud of you and know you will always do your best to achieve your goals. May God bless you. Congratulations.

We love you
Mom and Dad

COURTNEY DIPERT
Dear Courtney

The years pass so quickly, as we go from the "Cabbage Patch" to Cyberspace and from crayons to trigonometry! Throughout volleyball, drill team, basketball, cheerleading, softball, and Student Congress, you have always shown compassion, dedication, and leadership. You know the meaning of success. It is time to share your knowledge with the world.

We love you forever!
Jerbo, Deebo, and K-bo

CARL PENCE
Dear Carl,

We're so proud of all you've accomplished and we're so proud of all you've become. You've grown from little boy to man, from dreaming dreams to saying "I can" and working to make your dreams come true. Wherever your dreams take you, whatever the future holds, we'll always love you just because you're you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Steven

RYAN GIZA

Dear Ryan,

Congratulations! We're very proud of the fine young man you've become. You have a very bright future ahead of you. Always be happy and remember, we love you and support you in your endeavors.

Love,
Mom and Dad

JENNY STIGALL

Dear Jenny,

Where has our baby gone? You grew so fast. I still smell baby powder on my hands. Honey, always stay the way you are. Never alter all those good qualities you have.

God bless you sweetheart!

Love,
Mom and Dad

TAMMIE HINKLE

Sweet Pea,

You have always been a source of happiness and pride for me. Your thoughtfulness, helping ways, and compassion for others help to make you the wonderful person that you are. You can be proud, as I am, of all that you have achieved. Continue as you are and you will always do well. You deserve all that is good!

Love,
Mom

JILL LEAHY

Jill,

You have all of the qualities it takes for a brilliant future. Believe in yourself and success will follow. We are very proud of the person you have become.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Erin, Matt, and Bailey

CANDACE KLEIN

Dear Candace,

The years have gone by so fast. It is hard to believe that soon you will be going away to college. With all your accomplishments and future goals, you will always succeed in what you do. We have been so blessed to watch you grow into a beautiful young woman.

Love,
Mom and Dad

EMILY BURGESS

Dearest Emily

I hope I have let you know long before this that I am so proud of you. You have tackled, head on, more of life's twists and turns than any child needed to. You've grown mentally, spiritually, and emotionally because of it. I have given you some tools you need to grow further with—now it's up to you. Whatever you do and wherever you go, I'm behind you and you need to know that you can always count on me as your friend, always.

I love you no matter what,
Mom and Matt

BRIAN DAVIS

Brian,

"Even then you made us laugh!" Brian, your many special talents have been a source of amazement and pride—you are truly a "Renaissance Man!" As you continue your journey through life, we offer you our support, encouragement, and especially our . . .

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Bonnie

DAVE O'DONOHUE

Dear Dave,

No matter how high you've set your goals, somehow you've always attained them—even as a young Super-Hero when you thought you could FLY!!!

Your endless talents, boundless enthusiasm, and warm caring personality, have given us great joy. We are very proud of the young man you've become and look forward to being a part of all your future success.

Love,
Mom and Dad

VANESSA PILLOW

Dear Vanessa,

Congratulations! I am very proud of you and will always be on your side. You've brought much happiness into my life. I wish you a life full of success, love, happiness, and laughter. You deserve the best!

I love you very much,
Mom

ERIC GALLOWAY

Dear Eric,

We are so proud of your efforts and accomplishments—as you should be too! You have grown and matured into a person that is caring, intelligent, and, all in all, a great son and brother. Congratulations on reaching this, the first of many of life's milestones.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Brad

JIM LIAKUS

Dear Jim,

The time is finally here for you to experience life as an adult. I have watched you grow into a fine young man with a will to succeed and a compassion for others. I am very proud of you, and I know your Dad is looking down from heaven with equal pride. Never lose your spirit for life and your sense of humor, Jim. And remember, you can do anything you set your heart and mind to do.

With love and support, always!
Mom

PAT SARB
Dear Patrick,

You are incredible! You give so much of yourself, bringing joy, hope, and peace to all who know you. As you begin your quest for "reachable" stars, stay grounded in the knowledge that you are loved, remembering to let your light shine. "Never give up" and always strive to be the best that you can be. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." That is you, son. We are very proud of you and thankful for the precious gift you are.

Lynda and Pat Sarb

VICTORIA BIELECKI

Dear Victoria,

You are God's tool; you have a purpose in this world. Our prayer for you is that you will walk with God. Even when things are the darkest, focus on the God who created you, and loves you, and understands you. Congratulations honey.

We love you so very much
"Your family"

KURT BOGSETH

Dear Kurt,

If it seems like you've been in a baseball uniform since you were born . . . you have been! Keep up the good work! Act, play, and learn to your fullest! So far so good.

Love,
Mom and Dad

CATHY RHODES

Dear Cathy,

Congratulations and best wishes! We know your caring nature will guide you through in any situation. Good luck with your teaching career plans! You'll make an excellent Teacher!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Chuck, and David

JENNY HATFIELD

Our dear Jenny,

It's hard to believe we're writing this letter to "our little girl." You have been a joy to us since the day you were born and you continue to be so. You're the best daughter we could have asked for.

We want you to know that we are very proud of you. You've always worked hard and done your best at school and in sports.

When you finish high school, we know you will be a success at whatever you do because of the great person that you are. We wish you love, happiness, and all good things in your life. We will always be here for you.

With love always,
Mom and Dad

STEVE JAHNKE

Dear Steve,

You are a gift from God to us, one of whom we are quite proud! We've imparted values and wisdom from which you will be able to draw, and given you tools from which to gain comfort and the answers to life's most perplexing questions. Always remember that we love you! Remember who you are and whose you are! Success is a measure of how well you serve others with the gifts and talents you've been given. As far as we're concerned, you are already a success! Continue to grow and go in God's grace.

With much love,
Mom and Dad

JENNY BRUSAK

Dear Jennifer,

It's hard to believe that our baby is graduating from high school. Through the years you have brought us much joy and pride and we know you will continue to do so. Being a cheerleader suits you, as you have surely brought a lot of cheer into our lives. We wish you all the success and happiness in the world.

Love,
Mom and Dad

KIM CINERT

Dear Kimberly,

You've made it. We are very proud of you, and love you very much. We've enjoyed going to your basketball games and your track meets. Keep a smile on your face with an attitude to match it, and you'll be successful.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

HEATHER COOK

Dear Heather Marie,

It is a joy to be a part of your life. You seem to have grasped from your beginning, how to live each day to the fullest (your body wants to know if you will let it sleep a little more often). You set goals for yourself, you care about others, you live out your faith with hope and determination. Continue to seek a balance between planning a future and living fully in the present. Compare yourself not to other people, but to what you want and are capable of achieving. Know that you are loved every step of the way.

Mom

Heather,

These four years went by so fast. It seems like only yesterday that you started high school. I will miss all of the last minute phone calls asking me to attend a school function, game, or for a ride.

You are very special to me. You hold a big place in my heart. You make my proud to say "Yes, that's my daughter." I know you will do well in your endeavors. Good luck.

With all my love,
Dad

KELLY SUPERNAW

Dear Kel,

We hope you've enjoyed high school as much as we've enjoyed watching you grow into the funny, wonderful person you are. Good luck at Western!

Love,
Mom, Pa, Angie, and Amy

ANDY JABLONSKI

Dear Andy,

The years have gone by so quickly and as you graduate, remember all the pride and joy you gave us over the years.

Your music filled our hearts and home with happiness. We treasure those moments.

Look forward to your college years. Achieve and Succeed!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jillian

KELLI WEBER

Kelli,
The time has come to spread your wings and fly. With your courage and determination you will go far. I'm so proud of you. Take care of yourself and protect your "heart." I'll always be here for you.

Love,
Mom and Mei-Sue

Keili,
You have evolved from the most loving child to a very self-assured young woman. I have enjoyed your journey more than you will ever know. Do what is best for you and know you have my unconditional and unending love.

Dad

KELLY O'REILLY

Kelly Rose,

I'm so proud you've reached this point in your life. Continue on and you'll see with determination and hard work you can achieve anything you set out to do. Good luck in the future.

Love,
Mom and Dad

STACY SOLIDAY

Dear Stacy,

We've watched you grow up into a beautiful young woman with a heart of gold. Your kindness and concern for others is a special gift.

We've seen your love of music and marching band, and you've made our hearts swell with pride.

We are ready now, to watch you reach the goals you set for yourself as you go "Trekking into the Future!"

We love you more than you will ever know!

Mom and Dad
Bob and Johathan
and Fred

SARAH HUDZIK

Dear Sarah,

We have often said it is your task to become who you can be and to set new horizons for yourself continually. We are so happy to be with you to witness your success in this task. Thank you for sharing yourself with us. Truly, you have enriched our experience.

Love,
Mom and Dad

AARON CONRAD

Dear Aaron,

You are a super son and have become a very handsome young man. Your smile lights up our hearts. We hope your dreams will be fulfilled and your future will only hold love, success, and happiness.

God bless you always!
Love,
Mom and Dad

ANNIE SPITZ

Annie,

You were always an amazing and intriguing child, and now a wonderful young adult. You couldn't have made us prouder parents. We look forward to sharing your future and eagerly anticipate helping you to fulfill all your hopes and dreams.

Love,
Mom and Dad

TRACY WHITE

Tracy,
Congratulations! We can't believe how fast the years have gone. We are very proud of you. You have grown into a beautiful young woman. We hope your future plans bring you great success.

Love,
Mom and Dad
Jake and Justin

SARAH PORTER

My Dearest Sarah,
There are so many milestones along the way to this, your last year in your high school career. So many of these important steps have brought about this process of becoming what you are today, a confident, poised, grown-up young woman. Your mother and I are very proud of you and all that you have accomplished in spite of the difficulties you have faced along the way.

Now you are starting a new phase of Life, College, and you have picked up a good one. My hopes and prayers for you in the coming years is that life will be good and kind to you in all that you do, somehow that seems to be a foregone conclusion.

Thanks for being who you are and all you will become. May God richly bless you.

Your friend always,
Dad

ALLISON MAXWELL

Dear Allison,
How proud we are of you! You have managed to overcome so many obstacles in your life to become a beautiful, very smart young woman! You are the daughter every parent hopes for. God has truly blessed us! Buena Suerte to you and know you can achieve anything your heart desires!

We love you!
Mom, Dad, and Veronica

MICHELLE LUKENS

Dear Michelle,
Where have the years gone? You always liked "wheels and hats" as is apparent by this picture. We are proud of you and wish you the very best!

Love,
Mom and Dad

KATIE CARLSON

Dear Katie,
You have always been our "Star." May your future be as bright and shiny and full of fun as you have always been.

Love,
Mom and Dad

SAMIRAH ZARAB

Dear Samirah,
Run the race to which you have been chosen, Samirah.
Let quietness and confidence be your guide along the way. You will do great things!

Love,
Mom and Dad

ONIEKA VANVLEET

Onieka,

Oh my—You've made it through high school already?

So now you're intelligent, witty, beautiful, and eighteen.

Wait—we're not old enough to have an eighteen year old yet!

Love,
The Dorks and Mom

PHIL NOWAKOWSKI

Dear Phil,

The warmth and joy you have brought into our lives is immeasurable. The pride in your accomplishments is immense. You're like a shooting star, burning bright for all the world to see. Keep setting and achieving those goals. Thanks for letting us call you ours!

Love,
The Nowakowski Family

DARA HUCK

Dearest Dara:

There are no words to adequately describe how much we love you and how proud we are of your accomplishments.

Your naivete is refreshing and sometimes humorous. The concern and caring you have for others along with the soft heart you possess, are admirable virtues. We hope you always retain them. You truly have become a responsible young woman.

We wish you all of life's best as you strive to attain all of your goals. We are behind you all the way and support our "starving artist" 100%.

No matter how old you are, you will always be our "Missy Footles." We love you dearly.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

AUBREY GOLIBER

Dear Aubrey,

We have enjoyed watching you achieve so much with a combination of determination and humor. You have never been afraid to attempt difficult things, and you invariably find a way to accomplish your goals. Your energy and enthusiasm for life will bring you much joy in the future. We love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kristen, and Sam

THOMAS AESCHI

Dear Thomas,

You are a thoughtful and very social young man. You are a wonderful addition to our family. We have thoroughly enjoyed the experience! You are an excellent ambassador for Switzerland.

Love,
Mom and Dad

DANIELLE PETERSEN

Dani,

Eighteen years. So short for us. So long for you. Before you were born, I wished for an independent daughter. In your baby book, I wrote that I hoped you would grow to be loving, compassionate, intelligent, anxious, and self-disciplined. We see all these qualities and more in the lovely young woman you have become. You move on now with the freedom and ability to determine your own path: career, family, continuing development in maturity and spirituality. We have complete faith in your self-determination and we will always be here for moral and morale support. Enjoy the journey.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Alexa, Nellie, DJ, and Andy

AARON HABER

Dear Aaron,

Over the last four years, your commitment to your studies, school and friends, together with your dedication to achieving your goals, has shown us that you have what it takes to be a winner in life. Next year, when you're away at school, we'll miss your unique sense of humor, your smile, and your "friend George." Our wishes for your future are happiness, success and the hope that all your dreams come true.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Matt, and Amanda

ANDY RUMSHAS

Dear sweet Andy,

You have become ours and we love you dearly. We have no childhood pictures because we were not part of your life that long ago. But we will be part of it throughout the future. You are a wonderful young person- loving, kind, considerate- and it feels terrific to add you to our family. We anticipate watching you choose your path in life and achieve your goals. And we will always be here for moral and morale support. Enjoy the journey.

Love,
Sharon, Bruce, Alexa, DJ, and Dani

KRISTY SCHMIDT

Dear Kristy,

You have just completed the first step in a long and wonderful journey. The scenery, like you, will only get better.

Love,
Mom and Dad

ALISON POSSEHL

Dear Alison,

It seems hard to believe that it was over 17 years ago that heaven blessed us with a precious baby girl. You have brightened our lives and captured our love with your sense of humor, beautiful brown eyes, and enthusiasm for life. You've given us so many wonderful memories- adorable baby, talkative, curious toddler, fashion model, skating champion, bookworm, honor roll student, caring daughter, sister, and friend. You truly are a special gift from God. We are very proud of your achievements and the intelligent, loving young woman that you've become. We wish you joy, success, and love in your future. Try to always put God and family first in your life. With your many talents and determination, we know that you can accomplish your dreams. Congratulations on your graduation, Blinker. You're the best!

All our love,
Dad, Mom, Grandma, and Lauren

SARAH POPE

Dear Sarah Elizabeth,

You have accomplished so much during your 12 years of school and you have made it look so easy. We, at home, have known how hard you have worked. How proud we are of you! We love you so much and wish you the very best in everything.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jason

SHERRI STRONG

Dear Sherri,

Congratulations! We have many fond memories of you as you have grown into a mature young adult. It's been fun! We hope your big smile will continue to find happiness.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Ann

HERE TODAY GONE TOMORROW

The definition of style as seen in the dictionary is, "external mode or fashion." Students at Lisle have their own sense of style. Some kids are into the greppy look, while others prefer grunge. A lot of kids have their own unique fashion. Some students mix flannels with baggy pants and the newest shoes, others wear sweaters and chinos. A lot of kids alternate these looks depending on their mood.

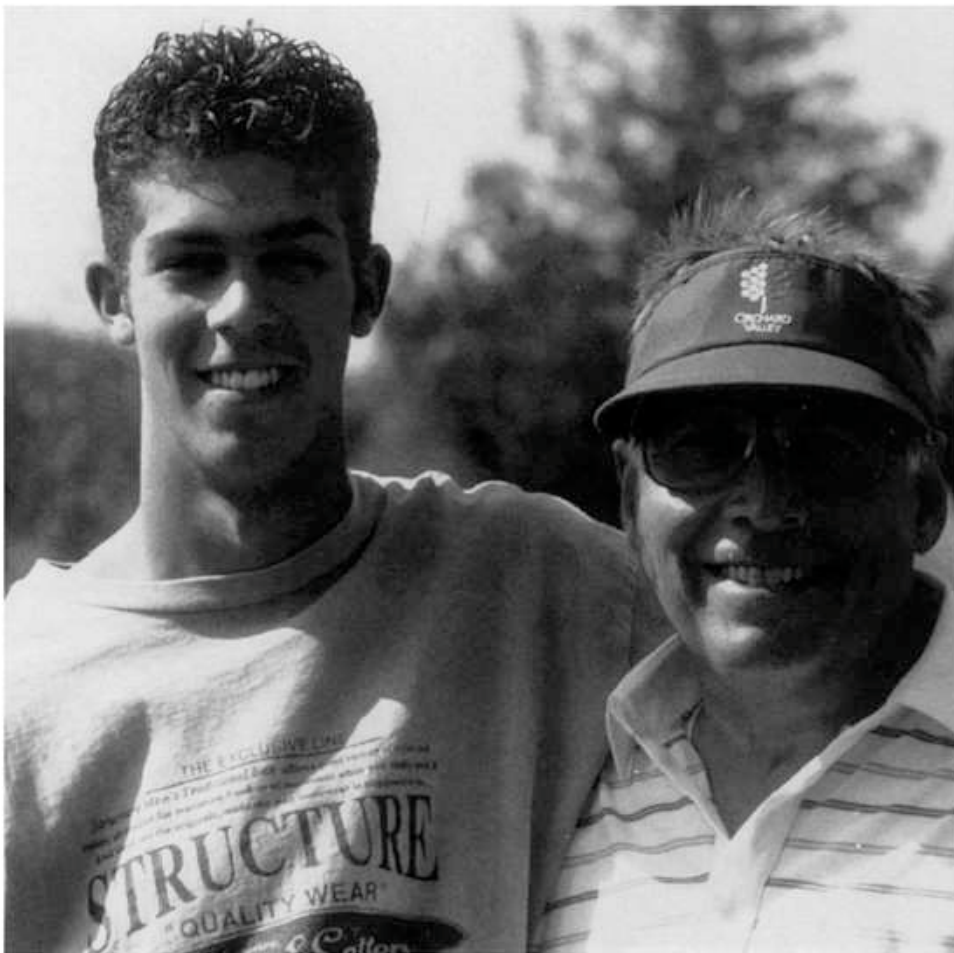

Looking around the school, it's obvious that students at Lisle are casual. Almost everyone wears jeans most of the time, except for the occasional skirt or tie. One of the big looks for the year was corduroy. It showed up on pants, skirts, and purses. When asked about Lisle's fashion, people's opinions differed. The major response was that styles are varied, and everyone has their own sense of what looks good.

LOOKING TO WIN

GOING FOR THE GOAL

CHAMPIONS ALL THE WAY

This year's sophomore Lion football team finished a winning season led by Coach Bonomo and Coach LeCrone and captains Ronnie Murphy and James Cates. The Lions fought their way to become I-8 Conference Co-Champions. With key victories over rivalries Wilmington and Reed-Custer, the Lions were able to capture the title. Strong performances were delivered by the whole team with special notes going to quarterback/free safety Matt Sarb, running back/ strong safety Chris McCullough, and quarterback Jake Lindgren.

The main reason that this year's team was such a success was the amount of dedication that each player put in. Many of the players, especially lineman Matt Gruwell, Chris Hudzik, Tony Falada, and Tom Holtorf, would get up at 5:30 in the morning to do weight training at the school. Also there were the many tough practices in the hot summer heat that began before the school year.

"Games are won in the off-season," said Coach Bonomo. "The amount of work they're putting into the off-season will help them next year. They have all of the ability, but without the hard work, they wouldn't have been co-champions."

The 1995 Sophomore Lions football team could best be summed up by the words of co-captain Ronnie Murphy, "Everyone thought we would be a mediocre team, but we wouldn't settle for being mediocre."

LIONS ROAR ON TIGHT PANTS, LOTS OF MUD

The 1995-96 varsity football team, coached by Mr. Bobbit, Mr. Ghinazzi, and Mr. Sanko, impressed Lisle fans with their 4-3 conference record. With only a few returning starters Lisle still managed to pull off a winning season.

Led by captains Phil Nowakowski and Colin Mulacek, the 45 man squad caused much excitement. Rain or shine, Lisle fans came out to Wilde Field to cheer on the home team.

Two of Lisle's most talented, Chris Sally and Colin Mulacek received the honor of being named All Conference.

The make-up of the team was much different this year than it has been in the past. With only 9 seniors, the majority of the varsity team was made up mostly of juniors. Four underclassmen, Tony Schommer, Phil Chernesky, David Cates and Carl Dimmitt were privileged enough to make and play on the varsity team. According to a majority of the varsity football team, the season was disappointing, but they are all looking forward to a new and improved team next year.

SET IT UP SPIKE IT DOWN

The Lisle Senior High School volleyball teams contributed to the athletic puzzle by demonstrating their sportsmanship as well as their proficiency during the 1995-96 season. This could not have been possible without the leadership of coaches Mr. Cooper and Mr. Steben, and assistant coaches Ms. Squires and Mr. Yamamura.

Mr. Cooper explained, "The girls matured and learned to play together as a team this year, which is what made them improve so much and have a great season!"

In order to participate, players had to be able to control a volleyball, including bumping, setting, and spiking. Various drills to improve the requirements were mastered at the team workouts.

The teams gained the experience needed to endure the thrill of victory as well as the agony of defeat. The junior varsity performed 14 and 14 season. The varsity team proudly stepped off the court with a 27 and 10 season. The team's spirit and determination enabled them to accomplish a season well done.

The major contribution to the outcome of the season was the fact that all of the players were willing and able to fight for a victory. This was evident throughout the season.

LADY LIONS MAKE A HIT

SERVE IT UP

From beginners to year-round tennis fanatics the Lisle girls' tennis team really pulled together this year. Along with Mr. Howell the girls worked hard to keep their rackets and their spirits high.

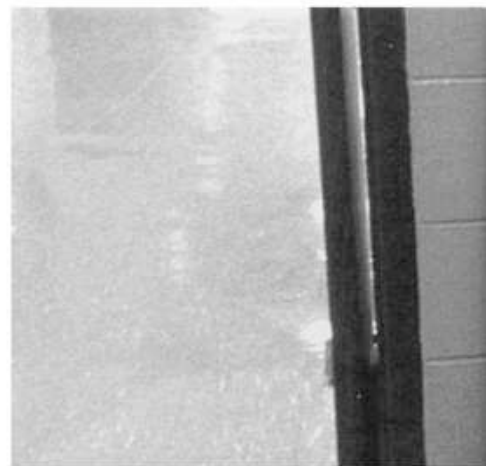

There are several different types of tennis meets. There are varsity tournaments which are usually held on Saturday, after school meets which are for both junior varsity and varsity players and regionals which are held at the end of the season.

As well as having a larger team this year, the Lionettes also had brand new skirts. This is the first time in Lisle's history that a uniform has been provided.

Captain Ana Lee led the Lionettes through the season and also was voted M.V.P. Even though there were a wide range of skill levels good leadership brought everyone together to finish the season with a 9-9 record.

According to Carolyn Kroupa, "Tennis was a fun new experience. I met people that I have become friends with and I learned a lot about the sport."

JUST PUTTING AROUND

Lisle's golf team finished second in the conference this year carrying a record of ten wins and three losses. Chad Johansen went down to state this year, but while he had an excellent second day, did not place. Mr. Jones, the coach, said "It was a very encouraging year, and the future looks great with Chad and Larry coming back." Practices and lots of dedication brought the team to where they stand now.

SHOOTING TO BE CHAMPIONS

PRIDE ON THE COURT

"We're unbelievable!" says junior Will Geist when asked to describe this year's boy's varsity basketball team. That isn't such an exaggeration considering the Lions had a perfect conference record of 14-0. This is the first time in history that a Lisle team has done this. They finished third at the Lisle Thanksgiving Tournament and fourth overall at the Lemont Christmas Tournament.

The Lions were led by captains and high scorers Chris Jones and Damein Glover. The coaches for varsity are Coach D'Amico and Coach Marx. The sophomore and freshman coaches are Coach Clark and Coach LeCrone respectively.

Throughout the season, the players showed great dedication and an intense love for the game. "Even though not everyone plays, everyone contributes," says junior Bob Jacobs. With only four seniors on this year's team, there will be a large amount of experience on next year's team. This leaves only high hopes and expectations for Lisle Boys Basketball.

LADY LION FEVER

ON THE REBOUND

Nobody expected much from this year's girls' basketball team. After reflecting back on last year, the team's prospects looked dismal. However, this year's girls basketball squad proved to be one of the most underrated and underestimated ball clubs this school has to offer.

Lisle went winless for the second consecutive season despite powerful back-up performances from Aubrey Goliber and Jenny Hatfield. Christie Herter, Rachel Maralit, Kim Cinert, and the rest of the team also had outstanding seasons. Sophomore Stephanie Weber also proved to be a great asset. Strong leadership and great team spirit kept this team in high hopes.

The Junior Varsity squad was a little more successful with a record of 9-14. Top players were Erin Seagren, Sarah Estrella, and Sarah Dailey.

Lisle Coach Pritchard had been holding up well and isn't disappointed in his players at all. "They work hard and never give up, and that's what counts in the end." And don't take ties for granted.

STRIKE ONE UP FOR LISLE

This year's bowling team was coached by Mr. Beato. It included six seniors, one junior, three sophomores, and one freshmen. Kathy Hansen and April Sedlock pushed the team to do their best this season. The upperclassmen guided the newer members to a better style and technique. They had a tough season playing much bigger schools such as Downers Grove North and Kaneland. Allison Maxwell said, "Though our team suffered many losses, bowling is an overall team building experience."

MUDDY MILERS

REACHING FOR THE STARS

The cross country team began the season with a unique approach. They decided to not worry about victories, medals, or team honors, but rather to focus on building the program and gaining some respectability throughout the area and within the conference.

For the earlier part of the season, this approach simply did not work. Instead of having athletes accept competitive challenges, they became content with less than acceptable levels of effort and commitment. Eventually, those runners who seemed on the verge of becoming solid competitors drifted toward complacency and mediocrity.

It wasn't until the last three weeks of the season that this attitude began to change, that Lisle runners began to focus more seriously, and thereby train more intensely.

The cross country team went farther than was expected of them this year. Both girls' and boys' teams qualified for sectionals by taking fifth place in the regionals. It was the first girls' team in a long time to make sectionals. Lady cross country teammate Sarah Jakalski said, "No one really expected us to make sectionals, but we put in a lot of effort and it turned out to be a big success."

Overall, the concensus was that a good time was had by everyone, and the runners showed improvement by the end of the season. They look forward to improving themselves even more next season. Jason Merrill exclaimed, "Cross Country was fun and we have good potential for next year!"

PIN EM DOWN

ALL THE WAY TO STATE

In order to become a good wrestler you need; patience, determination, and skill. Many wrestlers have to lose or gain weight, just being able to do that is a skill in itself. The wrestlers have practice every day with all day invitationals on the weekends. This year Brian Davis and Warnell Ludington went down to state. Brian placed fourth, and Warnell still has three years to go to place. Mr. Sanko and Mr. Ruettiger led the team to its great victory.

DREAMS, DANCE, AND DEDICATION

WITH A LITTLE KICK

"We knew from the start we had a lot of potential, but it took patience, hard work, and dedication to pull it all together," said Tracy White, Jaime Simmons, and Sarah Pope. This proved to be true. Captains Aubrey Goliber and Sarah Hudzik led the Lionettes through another very successful season. Performing at football games, basketball games, pep rallies, a wrestling meet and various competitions. Lisle's drill team drew crowds and applause with their dazzling talent.

This year's squad not only works well together during practice, but also enjoys spending time together outside of school. The 15 members along with Mrs. Sanko survived endless early morning practices and long hours of frustration and success to obtain the grace and glory they worked so hard for.

STAND UP AND CHEER

JAM THOSE STANDS

The Spirit of Lisle was higher than ever this year. The 1995-96 Lions cheerleaders were loud and full of life. The girls, along with six energetic and brave guys, had a very exciting season. The varsity cheerleaders were very successful in the competitions they entered in this year. All the cheerleaders, including Football, Wrestling, and Basketball, showed more spirit than ever. The cheerleaders didn't just perform at the games and competitions but at the ever exciting pep-rallies. Their job is to get the spirit started in the students and keep it there for the game. Seeing how pumped the crowd was during games, it can be said that the cheerleaders did their job.

FLAGS FLYING HIGH

TWIRLS, TUCKS, AND TOSSES

The 1995-96 Flag Corps entered the school year with a fresh look. Not only did they have new uniforms for the football season, but they had a new sponsor, Miss Michelle Lange, and the largest Flag Corps Lisle has seen.

The corps started out the year by attending camp at Fred J. Miller clinics in Valparaiso, Indiana. This was a time for the new members to experience twirls, tucks, and tosses; and a time for the old members to be reunited with each other. Two of the captains, Kelly Supernaw and Katie Carlson won awards for the best flags at camp.

By July, the Corps had begun practicing for the first football game to be held at the end of August. That month of practice made the corps able to do harder moves and add extra flair to their routine.

When the corps joined the rest of the Marching Band in the beginning of September, all they seemed to have time to do was practice. All the practice paid off, though, as the corps wowed the fans doing a routine to the latin jazz tune, "Johnny's Mambo" from the movie "Dirty Dancing."

The flag corps also was able to participate in the Homecoming Pep Assembly for the first time. This is one year that the Flag Corps and the rest of Lisle will never forget.

This past year has been about making memories of friendships, relationships, good and bad times, and even a few things learned in the classroom. On the last day of school, the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors walk out of L.S.H.S. with their new ranks while seniors take one last look at the place where they made so many memories. As they stride through the doors one last time, they face making themselves new ranks on their own.

THE LAST LOOK

Dear staff,

Remember at the beginning of the year I asked why those of you who worked on yearbook last year had returned? Almost all the answers included "Because it's fun!" Well, I'd like to add my vote on the fun side, and tell you I had a wonderful time this year. That is not to say that missing pictures, missing copy, missing pages and missing innards brought a smile to my face, but "all in all," it was a successful year, and you were great to work with. You are talented and thoughtful and sensitive, as well as funny.

It took a while to get used to our new room, but there's no doubt we put our stamp on it. It also took a while to get used to Mrs. Henry working on her computer in the back of the room. But she was a good friend and helper when we needed her. Thanks, Mrs. Henry.

Now it's time to say goodbye, goodbye to spelling tests (I trust you'll never be too giddy to remember how to spell gauche.), video lists, and Sweet Lips. We'll miss the seniors: Heather, Allison, Stacy, Jim and especially you, Aubrey, our guiding light and innards keeper. Special thanks go to Jamie, who worked hard to keep us on track, while dreaming of mini mags, and Jim, our photographer, who wasn't afraid to get into the action.

Thanks to all the staff for all the good times.
Mrs. Weis
